BRITISH AND IRISH REBELS AGAIN CLASH

Fighting in Progress Between English Troops and Rebels on Northwest Border of the Irish Free State

Defeated Republicans Fall Back to Safe Points Along Frontier; Incendiaries Are Still Plying Belfast Torch

By DANIEL O'CONNELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

DUBLIN, June 6.—Fighting has again broken out between British troops and republican irregulars on one point on the northwest border of the Irish Free State, according to a report reaching Arthur Griffith today.

Richard Mulcahy, minister of defense in the Irish provisional government, is avoiding the concentration of British troops along the Ulster line, and is endeavoring to prevent a clash between Free State garrisons and British soldiers in the fighting zone.

Dublin officials admit, however, that they are filled with anxiety over the co-operation of the British troops and Ulster special constables.

The British have not yet re-entered Belleek, in the Lough Erne sector. The position is a most difficult one to capture, owing to the natural defenses of the town. It is reported that Sinn Feiners are massed about the town and that firing is in progress between them and the British at long range.

BRITISH VICTORY OVER REBELS EXTENDED.

BELFAST, June 6.—(By International News Service.)—The British victory over the Irish Republicans was extended today when the republicans retreated from a number of strategic points along the Ulster-Free State frontier.

The British are not pursuing the republicans beyond the boundary. There has been desultory firing at some points, but up to noon no battles had been reported.

HOSPITAL PATIENTS THROWN INTO PANIC.

LONDON, June 6.—(By International News Service.)—Scores of patients in a Belfast hospital were thrown into panic early today when a battle broke out near the institution. Patients began crashing through the windows, according to a Central News despatch from the Ulster capital today.

Nurses were forced to lift the patients from their beds and place them upon the floor to avoid injury. Some of the patients became hysterical.

A large warehouse on the Belfast waterfront was destroyed by incendiaries.

LONDON, June 6.—The Anglo-Irish conference over the Irish constitution, which was to have been resumed today, was postponed until tomorrow, owing to the absence of Griffith, leader of the Irish republicans. Griffith is expected to arrive from Dublin tomorrow morning, with the revised draft of the Irish constitution, the changes having been made to meet British objections to the original document.

Heavy patrols of British light aircraft are watching the Irish coast for gun-runners, following seizure of the American steamship Seattle Spirit at Tralee Bay, said a despatch to the London Times today.

Disappointed in Love, Swiss Is Deported

By ASSOCIATED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE. NEW YORK, June 6.—August Probst, young Swiss butler, whose heart affairs with Pittsburgh society girls at the exclusive Rolling Rock club were alleged by his friends to have moved others to railroad him out of the country, was deported today on the Mauretania.

The government engaged an attendant to accompany Probst, who attempted suicide by slashing his wrist at Ellis Island yesterday. The attendant is to report on the butler's physical condition and bring back a certificate from his parents, showing that the prodigal has returned to his home in Switzerland.

It was charged that Probst came to America without passport.

Hoover Financed Czar, Says Watson

By UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, June 6.—Charles E. Watson, secretary of Commerce, today announced that he had been refused to sell supplies to contractors employing union labor in construction work. Prosecutions were asked. It was pointed out that the case was similar to recent prosecutions in the East, in which the department of justice has sought to break up efforts of labor unions to force the employment of their members exclusively in construction work.

THREE MINUTE TALES

By AD SCHUSTER

HOGSHEAD ROW.

THE hundreds of pluckers who took the spur-line railroad out to the grove on Sunday morning were busy with lunches and children. They did not know that up ahead an engineer and fireman worked side by side in silent hatred. Had they known they would not have cared, for the Sunday plucker takes to the woods for pleasure and what fights may come are incidental.

Old Tom Crowl and his fireman had hated each other for months, a feeling which seldom found expression in words too shallow to carry their freight. And a persistent, gloowering and abiding enmity and no one in the roundhouse or sheds knew what it was all about.

At the grove the hundreds spilled out of the train and, dragging and carrying babies and baskets, separated in the four directions for shady spots where lunches could be spread. The ground blossomed with its weekly crop of cartons and paper, men slept and children raced rings around the trees.

In the evening the crowd piled on the train, feeling and waiting, to protest when there was some delay in starting. The engineer, some one said, had "gone off and got drunk" and nobody could find him. For some minutes the younger men shouted in the gathering dusk, to return, runnings when the whistle sounded. The fireman, it was announced, was going to run the train in and the engineer would have to walk.

THERE were only a few in the crowd who connected a small story, in the papers next day with the incident. Tom Crowl had not returned and there was some belief that he had fallen into the river. Except in the roundhouse, on hogshead row, the story was not forgotten. There were plenty of oldtimers there to tell the story to the youngsters and to wonder what had become of the engineer.

The lights in hogshead row are different from those in any other meeting place of men. The atmosphere, to the uninitiated, is fitful and weird. Seated with their backs to flames which sputter and glow, the men and women, their faces smoky, their pipes and tall tales between their teeth, talk and listen. Shadows move back and forth and the men's lengthen and dwindle. Those who talk use full rumbling tones, and the listeners lean forward in silence. It is as if a company of gnomes had gathered at the entrance of a "fairy" cave to swap ghost stories.

One night the story of Tom Crowl was repeated again, and for the first time old Compton, new engineer, heard it. The young man listened like the rest, with the same intent gaze and no one could have guessed that he was the only one who did not know every word of the tale. At the close came the usual theories and speculations.

SID COMPTON, harking back to his apprentice days, stared into the flickering spaces. He felt a sudden dizzying nausea. The rumbling of the place seemed to beat with his throbbing temples as he placed bits of memories together and told himself over and over that he must be wrong.

"What engine was it?" he shouted, and he heard his voice as if it came from another. Without turning, one of the figures answered: "It was old Gerlie that was scrapped last year. She had been plucked until the autos put her out of business."

Sid made his way outside, took off his cap and let the wind blow on his face and brow. "That's the way," he said, "and it would do any good to tell." He thought of the time when it had been his duty to clean out the engine and of the day when he had plucked out some buttons and a piece of vici and had cursed at anyone who could be so thrifless as to throw them into the firebox.

S. F. Building Row Goes to Daugherty

By UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, June 6.—Formal complaint was made to Attorney General Daugherty by Frank Morrison, secretary of the A. F. of L. today against alleged practices of the members of the Builders' Exchange of San Francisco, an association of dealers in building supplies.

Those charged these dealers were refusing to sell supplies to contractors employing union labor in construction work. Prosecutions were asked. It was pointed out that the case was similar to recent prosecutions in the East, in which the department of justice has sought to break up efforts of labor unions to force the employment of their members exclusively in construction work.

BROOKHART WINS IOWA NOMINATION

Progressive Candidate Has Clean Sweep in Republican Senatorial Primaries; Lead Is Still Increasing

Returns Give Vote of 90,039 in 1577 Precincts Out of 2348 in the State; Victory Gained Over Five Rivals

By ASSOCIATED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

DES MOINES, June 6.—Returns from 1577 precincts out of 2348 for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, gives Brookhart 90,039; Pickett 36,711; Thorne 35,309; Francis 25,129; Sweet 22,743, and Stanley 8493.

By LINCOLN QUARBERG, United Press Staff Correspondent.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 6.—Smith W. Brookhart, Progressive, made a clean sweep of the state in Iowa's race for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, incomplete returns showed today.

Brookhart's lead over the field was increasing as reports piled up from scattered precincts throughout the state. It appeared a landslide for Brookhart.

The Progressive candidate, with five others in the field, had a safe margin above the 35 per cent necessary to nominate under the Iowa primary law, and his lead was steadily increasing. Reports from rural precincts are yet but meager and those are all regarded as Brookhart strongholds.

Charles Pickett, favorite of the conservatives, was running a poor second. Brookhart was out-polling him two to one in almost every precinct.

Brookhart's victory will be complete. Old guard leaders had confidently expected that with six candidates in the field they could easily keep Brookhart's plurality below the 35 per cent mark and thus throw the nomination into convention, where they would control. This political argument, it appeared today, had backfired in Brookhart's favor.

GREAT PROGRESSIVE VICTORY, SAYS WINNER.

WASHINGTON, Iowa, June 6.—"It is the greatest victory in the history of the Progressive movement," Colonel Smith Brookhart, hero of the Progressive landslide in Iowa, told the United Press at his home here today.

"It is an even greater victory for the Progressive cause than the Pennsylvania and Indiana primaries," Brookhart said, "because the platform on which I ran was more Progressive."

"This victory is not personal to me," he continued, "but is a victory of the farmers, laboring people, soldiers and mothers of Iowa, and also those of the business men who are willing to turn their backs on Wall Street and look to the farmers and laborers as feed bins."

General Morton and Mrs. Huff to Marry

By ASSOCIATED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE. GREENSBORO, Pa., June 6.—The engagement of Mrs. Lloyd B. Huff, of Rose Point Farm, near Greensboro, Pa., to General Charles G. Morton, U. S. A., was announced at a dinner at the Rolling Rock Country Club last night. The wedding will take place in New York late this month.

Major General Morton is in command of the Ninth Army Corps Area, which consists of Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Wyoming and Alaska, with headquarters at the Presidio, San Francisco. He served in the Philippines, and during the Mexican border, and during the World War, he commanded the Tenth and Twenty-ninth divisions in France.

Policeman Is Shot By Alley Prowler

By UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE. OMAHA, Neb., June 6.—Patrolman Charles Geiselman was shot through the chin and neck and bruised on the shoulder with a blunt weapon when he accosted a prowler in an alley in Benson, a suburb, shortly after midnight. The prowler was declared by witnesses to answer the description of Fred Brown, a fugitive two-gun bandit, who charged on girls in a shack over a week ago.

"Little Bug" Won't Get Her

The bard sang that "some little bug will get you some day," but MISS BERTHA DUBOVSKY, graduate of U. C., has reversed conditions. She has discovered the cause of botulism. —McCullagh photo.

BOTULISM GERM IS FOUND BY GIRL

LILLIAN RUSSELL DIES OF INJURY

U. C. Graduate Makes Discovery That Deadly Bacilli Infest Soil.

Discovery of the cause of botulism, which has claimed a large toll of lives, has been made by the University of California after almost a decade of research.

That the germ of botulism is not born in the canning process but is an inhabitant of the soil and thus innoculates fruits and vegetables of any locality where it is existent is the statement of Dr. George H. Whipple, director of the Hooper Foundation, under the direction of whom a large sum of money appropriated by the canning industry of California, has been expended in experimental research work.

Preliminary results of the investigation into the origin of the germ which has caused California packers and canners to raise almost a quarter of a million of dollars to fight the disease are contained in Dr. Whipple's annual report to President David P. Barrows of the University of California.

FUND BEING RAISED TO CONTINUE WORK.

A fund which will continue the work started by famous scientists at the Hooper Foundation in San Francisco and which will lead to the control and probable extermination of the deadly germ, is being raised by the various canner associations and others interested in the work.

That California is not suffering alone in the invasion of the botulism germ is also disclosed by Dr. Whipple in his report. "Extensive studies have definitely proven that the bacillus botulinus occurs in other states of the union and California is by no means more seriously affected than, for example, the states of New Jersey and Maryland," he said.

Investigations including the analysis of hundreds of samples of soil in an effort to determine the origin of the disease have been made by Miss Bertha Dubovsky of 422 Stow avenue, Oakland, an attaché of the Hooper Foundation.

Of these investigations Dr. Whipple says:

"Through Miss Dubovsky's investigation, it was found that the germ of botulism is present in the soil of California, and that it is the cause of the disease."

Portugal-to-Brazil Flight Completed

By UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE. LISBON, June 6.—Captains Saccadura and Coutinho, Portuguese naval aviators, completed their trans-Atlantic flight from Lisbon here yesterday. The 4000-mile flight began in April and the aviators used three planes, two of which were wrecked.

French Debt Envoys Are Ready to Sail

PARIS, June 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—The French foreign office was informed this afternoon that the United States was ready now to discuss the war debt question. The ministry of finance afterwards stated that the French mission was ready to start for the United States as soon as Premier Poincare gave the word.

Acid Thrown Upon German Politician

By UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE. CASSEL, Germany, June 6.—Philip Scheidemann, a political leader, is bedridden today as a result of having prussic acid thrown over him by an assassin. He is suffering chiefly from shock.

The attack on Scheidemann was made in the streets of Cassel as he was taking a stroll. He fired two shots at the assassin, but the man escaped.

LONDON, June 6.—(By International News Service.)—Germans and Poles have again clashed in Upper Silesia, but the fighting was quelled by French troops, according to an official despatch received here this afternoon.

MINE RULING IS ATTACKED BY GOMPERS

Capital Can Impose Conditions Upon the Working People and They Dare Not Resist, He Says of Verdict

Chief Justice Taft's Remarks Condemned by A. F. L. Head as "Bitter, Unforgivable," Says People to Act

By ASSOCIATED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CINCINNATI, June 6.—The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Colorado mine case yesterday was denounced today by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, as setting a precedent under which "capital can impose any condition on the working people of the country and they dare not resist."

The veteran labor leader, who arrived here today for the federation convention, which begins next week, declared, however, that he believed there was "some latent power over and above the Supreme Court—the Congress and the people of the United States—which would repudiate the court's ruling."

CHIEF JUSTICE TAFT'S STATEMENT CONDEMNED.

Gompers especially condemned the statement of Chief Justice Taft in reading the court's opinion.

"The comment of the chief justice that it was with great regret that the court finds itself unable to affirm the award of damages by the lower court is bitter and unforgivable," said President Gompers.

"CITIZENS TO DECISIONS OF RECENT MONTHS."

"The court has, for the first time in the history of federal legislation, laid down the principle that a voluntary corporation is liable to be held for damages by any act committed by one or a group of its members, no matter how far unrelated they may be in distance or supervision."

"The Colorado case comes as the climax to the decision of the Supreme Court in recent months, and to the chief justiceship of Mr. Taft, who apparently pleading the mine union in recent months, established the principle that a union can be held responsible for the conduct of any of its members."

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Supreme Court decision releasing $750,000 United Mine Workers' funds may hasten the end of the strike, miners' officials said today. The decision released for use of the mine union the funds which have been tied up in escrow for years in connection with the Colorado Coal company's damage suit. The Supreme Court yesterday ruled in favor of the United Mine Workers.

Release of this sum and the virtual certainty that as a result of the decision the mine workers' strike will be ended, led to a up in an identical suit brought by the Pennsylvania Mining company now pending in circuit court of appeals in St. Louis, will so strengthen the miners that the coal operators may be willing to meet them in a conference to settle the strike at once, according to opinion expressed at union headquarters.

DEATH RESULT OF INJURY ABOARD SHIP.

The accident, which Dr. Schill-decker, one of her physicians, said was the primary cause of her illness and death, occurred when she sustained a violent fall on the ship during a storm. The effects of the injury were not immediately serious, nevertheless, and although she steadily failed in health after her arrival home, even those most closely associated with her were not aware of the decline.

Moore's trip to Europe was undertaken at the request of Secretary of Labor James J. Davis for the purpose of making an intensive study among prospective emigrants to the United States.

WIDELY INTERESTED IN CIVIC AFFAIRS.

Mrs. Moore, who was very well known throughout the country for her interest in civic matters, was in great demand as a public speaker and only a short time prior to her death filled a number of such engagements. She was active in the work of the National Civic League.

Britain to Pay U. S. $250,000,000 a Year

LONDON, June 6.—(By International News Service.)—Great Britain is planning to pay the United States $250,000,000 annually for interest upon the money borrowed from the United States during the war, it was learned this afternoon from a semi-official source.

Beginning in October the interest will be paid in two installments, $125,000,000 in October and $125,000,000 in the last part of March or the first part of April.

French Women Ask Votes, Jury Service

CLAREMENT, France, June 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—The National Feminist Congress, in session here today, adopted resolutions urging the French Senate to pass the bill already adopted by the Chamber giving votes to women, demanding that women be eligible to serve on juries in criminal cases and that the teaching of the civil code be obligatory in all schools.

The child sneezes both day and night almost without interruption.

Rail Pay Slashed $60,000,000; 1,200,000 Workers to Vote On Country Wide Walkout

Machinists Will Get 70 Cents an Hour, Carmen 64

CHICAGO, June 6.—The wage slash ordered by the Railway Labor Board for the shop machinists and carmen will result in an approximate total payroll reduction of $59,669,347.

Under the order, the pay of the machinists is fixed at 70.3 cents an hour and the carmen's scale will be 64.4 cents an hour. The schedule now in effect is 71.3 cents for machinists and 73 cents for carmen.

The wage slash hits the pocket-books of between 290,000 and 500,000 men. In February, 1922, the number of men in the shopcrafts was 290,182. Under normal conditions this figure runs up to nearly half a million men.

Although nothing was said of the matter in the board's report, the official opinion is that the aggregate payroll disbursements of the railroads will be increased, despite the wage reduction ordered. This is expected to be accomplished through reinstatement of men laid off and the execution of deferred work.

Strike Ballot in Two Crafts to Be Taken by June 30; Edict Effective on July 1; Unions' Envoys Lay Plan

CINCINNATI, June 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—A strike vote of 1,200,000 rail workers will be taken by the individual unions affected by Railway Labor Board wage reductions, recently ordered and pending, it was decided here today by officers and representatives of railroad brotherhoods and unions. The session was called for a general discussion of pay reductions.

The votes in each organization will be returnable within thirty days after the board announces a wage cut for that class of employees, the vote of the shop crafts, whose reductions were ordered by the board today, being returnable on June 30.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—H. L. Brumson, special representative in Washington of the International Association of Machinists, declared today that a strike vote would immediately be taken among the 400,000 machinists affected by today's decision of the Railroad Labor Board reducing wages.

CHICAGO, June 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—Over the strong protest of the three labor representatives on the United States Labor board, a new wage cut of 7 cents an hour for railway shop mechanics and 9 cents for freight carmen, cutting 400,000 shopmen approximately $60,000,000 a year, was ordered today.

The new wage reduction brought an estimated added saving of $59,669,347 annually to the railroads, following on the heels of a $50,000,000 cut in the wages of maintenance of way laborers last week. The shop crafts decision becomes effective July 1, the same date as last week's order.

"NO CONSIDERATION OF NEEDS," SAYS MINORITY.

The minority report of the labor members pointedly stated that the majority decision was made "with no consideration of human needs," and charged that it fails to carry out the function of the board to set a "just and reasonable" wage.

"The tendency of this decision is to vindicate the propaganda of the railroads, and consequently condemn such statements as the employees have been able to bring to public attention," the minority opinion said. It was signed by Albert O. Wharton, W. L. McMenamin and Albert Phillips, the three labor representatives.

Supervisory forces of the railway shops were not decreased. After due consideration, the decision said, it was felt that the duties and responsibilities of such forces warranted maintenance of the present rates.

MECHANICS' REDUCTION AVERAGES 8 PER CENT.

The reduction for mechanics averaged a little more than 8 per cent, all machinists, boilermakers, electrical workers, carmen (except freight carmen), moulders, cupola tenders and coremakers and the regular and helper apprentices receiving a cut of 7 cents an hour. Freight carmen, commonly known as "car-knockers," and the object of some of the heaviest assaults by the roads in their battle for lower wages, were cut 9 cents.

The larger cut was ordered for the "car-knockers" because the board said it believed that their work did not require the same skilled services as other branches of carmen's work. This heavier reduction for the freight car men came under especially severe criticism in the minority report, the labor members declaring there was no justification for discrimination in car work.

Car cleaners, who now receive an average of $3.18 a day, were cut 5 cents an hour, or 40 cents a day. The mechanics, whose daily rate now averages from $4.14 for sheetmetal workers to $5.14 for blacksmiths, will lose 56 cents a day under the new decision, bringing their daily wage to approximately $5.70.

The board's latest decision, which is to be followed shortly by reductions in the wages of other crafts, is to be followed shortly by reductions in the wages of other crafts.

Bankers Ask Credit Data From Germans

PARIS, June 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—The desirability of enlarging the scope of the international bankers' committee which has been considering a foreign loan for Germany was unofficially discussed today by the members of the reparations commission. They decided to meet tomorrow morning to formulate a reply to the bankers, who recently asked for information as to the credit basis for the proposed loan.

The French member of the reparations commission has been instructed by Premier Poincare not to approve any reduction in the total amount of reparations, but it is considered quite possible that the commission may tell the bankers they are free to offer any suggestions they think helpful in solving the problem of an international loan.

LILLIAN RUSSELL DIES OF ILLNESS FROM ACCIDENT

Famous Stage Leader Succumbs to Injuries Received on Trip to Europe.

tively interested in civic affairs in this city and was a leader in woman's movements.

In addition to her husband, there were present at her bedside during her last moments her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Calbit, and her niece, Mrs. Mildred A. Martin. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Suzanne Westford Allen of New York City and Mrs. Hattie Leonard Colburn of Schenectady, N. Y. Funeral services for Lillian Russell will be held in Trinity Protestant Episcopal church Thursday afternoon. The body will then be placed in a vault until a suitable mausoleum can be erected by her husband, Alexander P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburgh Leader.

During the day many telegrams of condolence reached Moore from all parts of the country. They came not only from leaders in the theatrical profession, but from government officials and leaders in society.

Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, talking over the telephone from Washington, referred to her as "Sergeant Russell," for such she was by right of an order issued by Major-General Barnett when he commanded the United States Marine Corps.

Lillian Russell, the "queen of American opera," in private life Mrs. Alexander P. Moore, wife of the editor and publisher of the Pittsburgh (Pa.) Leader, for more than thirty years starred in various operatic roles in the United States and England. Still famed for youthfulness and beauty after she retired from the stage, she toured her native land with a lecture on "How to Live a Hundred Years."

During the war Miss Russell was active in Red Cross and Liberty loan campaigns, giving freely of her voice and dramatic talent to both those causes. She was born in Clinton, Iowa, December 4, 1861, the daughter of Charles E. and Cynthia Leonard, and removed to Chicago with her parents when 4 years of age. Educated at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Chicago, she studied the vocal and violin music and sang in a church choir.

STAGE DEBUT MADE IN CHORUS IN 1879. In 1876 she took a course in voice culture under Mme. Scherem-burg and later studied for opera under Leopold Damrosch.

Miss Russell's first stage appearance was in the chorus of Rice's "H. M. S. Pinafore" in 1879. She took the name of Lillian Russell, her grace and charm soon winning for her the sobriquet of "Alry, Alry Lillian."

She became a Casino theater star and remained at that New York playhouse until 1893, when she became a member of Weber & Fields stock company, singing with the famous comedians for several years. Later she was engaged as a prima donna by the McCull Opera Com-

Triumvirate Broken by Death

Here are three of America's most famous stage leaders, the central figure of whom—Lillian Russell—died early today at her home in Pittsburgh. Left to right they are: MRS. LESLIE CARTER, who recently emerged from retirement and is soon to open an engagement on the coast; LILLIAN RUSSELL, for thirty years the "toast of the town," and ELSIE FERGUSON, noted star. The three recently met at the Actors' Equity Association ball in New York—Copyright, 1922, by Underwood & Underwood.

pany, continuing therein until her own company was organized. She then toured the United States and England and at the end of several successful seasons entered vaudeville.

Among the most recent parts she portrayed were:

The title role in "Erminie"; (1909) "Fiddle-Dee-Dee" and "The Big Little Princess"; (1904) Lady Teazle in a musical version of "The School for Scandal"; (1906) Barbara in "Barbara's Millions"; Mrs. Elizabeth Killigrew in "The Butcher's Boy"; (1907) Mrs. Henrietta Barrington in "Wildfire"; (1909) Mrs. Laura Curtis in "The Widow's Might"; Rose Graham in "The First Night"; (1910) Georgiana Chatterbourne in "Search of a Sonnet"; Lillian Russell's last appearance on the stage was in Chicago four years ago, when she was engaged for the Chicago run of one of Raymond Hitchcock's "Hitchy-Koo" shows. At the end of the Chicago performances she returned to her home in Pittsburgh.

MARRIED FOUR TIMES DURING HER CAREER

Miss Russell had been thrice married before becoming Mrs. Moore, first to Harry Graham, musical director of Rice's "H. M. S. Pinafore" company, from whom she was divorced in 1884; second, to Edward Solomon, conductor of the Casino theater orchestra, New York, whose marriage she had annulled in 1894; and third to Signor Perugini, in private life John Chatterton, an operatic tenor, who died a number of years ago.

She was married to Moore in 1912. Always interested in the welfare of working girls, Mrs. Moore helped them in numerous and unostentatious ways. Her spirit of daring was shown in 1913 when she made a voyage in a Zeppelin over the city of Berlin.

Miss Russell, in company with her husband, visited a number of European countries during the past spring, conducting there an investigation of conditions pertaining to immigration to the United States. She later appeared before a committee of Congress and gave a detailed report of her observations abroad.

The Queen Is Dead; Never Be Another: Steindorff

"The Queen is dead; there never will be another!"

Thus did Paul Steindorff, lifelong friend of Lillian Russell and for many years her musical director, express the sentiments of the western musical world on the death of the comic opera star. Steindorff's pronouncement of this simple eulogy was made today at a rehearsal of the company with which he and Ferris Hartman are starring at the Auditorium theater and the company adjourned rehearsal for one minute in memory of the "Queen."

To Steindorff and Hartman the loss of Miss Russell is more than the loss of a professional comrade for these three were intimate friends. Steindorff and Hartman date back their friendship to 1896 when first they became associated together.

"I have lost one of my dearest friends in the profession," said Steindorff. "She was the warmest hearted woman, kindest to her surroundings, and the most generous."

ROME FASCISTI AND SOCIALISTS ARRANGE PEACE

By CLARA WOLD, International News Service Special Correspondent.

ROME, June 6.—A new and peaceful program of action between the contending forces of Italy's Socialists and Fascists has taken the place of the bitter fighting and killing of the past. One year ago tourists coming to Italy considered the trip somewhat incomplete unless they had witnessed at least one street fight.

May Day of last year was a day of bloodshed throughout the country. The day of election which followed shortly after—proclaimed as a day of truce by both sides—was marked by some hundreds of fearful killings and the destruction by the Fascists of many Socialist headquarters. May Day of this year was so calm that one would have imagined it to be Easter.

Socialists will tell you that the Fascist made their propaganda so unpopular with their former methods of attack that they have had to become "good little boys" if they are to gain any following. Fascist will assure you that they are making no disturbances now because the Socialists have reformed and the Communists have become more mild than the lambs of the fields.

Be these things as they may, a new program is in force, according to the statement of Gino Colori-Rini, secretary of the Fascist di Combattimento, which has its national headquarters in Rome. Having organized 600,000 Italians under the political program of "re-establishing the political equilibrium of the nation" at a time when the Socialists were strong enough in the Italian parliament to block any move the government wished to make, the Fascists are now organizing their forces on economic lines.

ous the world has known. Truly she was the queen of opera singers. "Our friendship started long before I was ever professionally connected with her. In 1895 I was sent for by her and went to London to conduct her engagement there. During the time I was with her we produced about sixteen different operas including 'La Belle Helene,' 'The Grand Duchess,' 'La Perichole' and 'The Little Duke.' I also conducted the revival of 'Fulgence.' Miss Russell's first success with an all-star cast. We will miss her terribly."

Miss Russell was the god-mother of Steindorff's youngest daughter, Lillian Russell Steindorff, and whenever she played in the west the star made her home with Steindorff here. The watch that Steindorff has carried for a quarter of a century was presented to him by Miss Russell and her company as a "token of esteem and regard."

Hartman first appeared with Miss Russell in "La Belle Helene," playing before the king. Others in the star cast were Tom Q. Scambrone and Edna Wallace Hopper.

WIFE TO HAVE LONG-DIFFERED TRIP

"Good morning, Mrs. Walters! Didn't I hear that you and the children were going up to Oregon to visit your mother this summer?"

Yes, we are going next week and stay until school begins. Isn't that fine? My husband decided that he could afford to let us take the trip now that business is better. I haven't been home since I was married, and mother hasn't been here since the last was three and the little was one year old. That was four years ago and the children have grown a lot since then."

"I suppose you are busy sewing and getting everything ready for your trip."

"Oh, yes, I've been making the youngsters some new clothes and have them all ready. I am not making much for myself but have several lovely new summer dresses and two pretty hats. I got them all at Cherry's and am so happy. Husband was pleased that I got them there as it is costing a good deal for the trip itself and my clothes can be paid for gradually during the next few months. You know Cherry's have such pretty gingham and organdie dresses and one can make such satisfactory terms for payment. The store for women is at 515 13th street, but they also have a store for men at 523 13th street."—Advertisement.

BOTULISM GERM IS FOUND BY GIRL, U. C. GRADUATE

Investigation it is conclusively proven that the bacillus botulinus is a common inhabitant of the soil. It has also been shown that the soil of certain localities is heavily polluted with the spores of this organism and that consequently any product of the soil in this region quite frequently carries botulinus spores. The distribution of these spores is so extensive that even vegetables or fruits bought in the open market are often heavily contaminated.

Discovery of the origin of the botulinus germ comes after several years of baffling deaths in various parts of the state. Many were caused by eating home-canned vegetables, while the olive industry of the state was seriously threatened by the presence of the germ. So great an alarm was spread that the National Canners Association, the California Packing Corporation and the various canning industries of California invited the Hooper Foundation of the University of California to make an investigation of botulinus. The association to date have provided the sum of $18,300, with approximately $17,500 raised to further combat the malady during the coming year.

CANNERY INSTALLED FOR EXPERIMENTS

In order that the effects of temperature on the botulinus germ may be determined, a small cannery is being installed at the foundation's headquarters in San Francisco and highly resistant germs will be tested in experimental cans of fruit and vegetables. This work is being done under the direction of Dr. Russell Esty, a scientist who has been sent west by the National Canners Association. Whether the germ obtains its growth more readily under conditions of home-canning will be one of the things determined.

Preliminary investigations along this line show, according to Dr. Whipple's report, that commercially canned fruits artificially infected with the spores of botulinus do not become spoiled and hide thus their deadly condition to the prospective consumer. On the other hand, it is declared, that

ATHLETIC MEET BEING ARRANGED

BERKELEY, June 6.—Plans are being completed for the second annual Junior High school athletic meet to be held on California oval at the university on Friday afternoon, starting at 1:30 o'clock.

A bulletin sent out to the schools yesterday announced that H. F. Peck, who will be in charge of the meet, has guaranteed that the events will go off according to schedule.

Miss Violet Richardson, supervisor of physical education in the Berkeley schools, tells of plans for the meet as follows: "The list of officials is not yet complete, but all who have been invited so far have accepted the invitation and have expressed willingness to do whatever they are called upon to do. The special teachers of physical training claim that the posture parade will be the best ever witnessed in the state. The boys and girls are convincing in their statements that the roofers' actions will far excel anything ever put on before. The competitors, over 500 in number, are in good condition and are expected to break most of the records made last year. A strong point is being made of urging the mothers and fathers to attend the meet."

Cut Hits 6000 in West; Strike Vote in 2 Weeks

Approximately 6000 men in the western district are affected by the Railway Labor Board's order cutting the wages of the shop crafts, according to announcement today by L. S. Gordon, secretary treasurer of the unions in the west. Gordon represents all the Southern Pacific shop employees in the western territory and many workers on other roads.
Gordon asserts that the shopmen will take a strike vote within the next two weeks.
"Until we have received official notification, nothing will be done," he stated. "We expect the official report of the board's action will be sent out from Chicago at once and the strike vote will be called immediately."
Officials of the Southern Pacific company here refused to comment on the new wage cut on the ground that they had not yet received official notification of the ruling.

ADVENTURERS IN 40-FOOT YACHT MAKE HONDURAS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The five adventurers who sailed away last October for South America on a forty-foot yacht have arrived safely in Amapala, Honduras, Central America, according to word received here.
The voyage was a dangerous one and the little boat lost sail and her anchor during the trip. The members of the crew, including Jacob Goldberg, captain; Arthur B. Brooks, first mate and official cameraman; A. Goldherz, chief engineer, and Arthur C. Krause, are guests of the American consul in Honduras.

S. F. Woman Named On Federal Board

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—Dr. Ethel M. Watters, director of the bureau of child hygiene of the state board of health, was yesterday appointed consultant of the administration of the Sheppard-Towner maternity act, according to advice from Washington, D. C. A meeting of the state board of health will be held in Sacramento next Tuesday to consider Mrs. Watters' resignation.

American Praises German Republic

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—That Germany is today a greater democracy than England was the declaration of Captain A. W. Bollenbeck, U. S. A., who arrived yesterday on the transport Sherman from a world tour. Bollenbeck declared that the howl of the European politician that Germany is still armed and is a menace to France and England is a hallucination.
"Those who are insisting that Germany is armed are terribly ignorant," Bollenbeck said. "The voters in Germany today have a greater voice in the government than the voters of England."

AIR PIRATES KIDNAPERS.
BUDAPEST.—The aeroplane bandits of Eastern Hungary kidnaped two girls from Huzath and carried them away to the mountains.

CHILD, 3, HIT BY MOTOR, IS BADLY HURT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—Eugene Slatnar, three years old, residing with his parents at 670 Fulton street, was injured late yesterday when struck by an automobile driven by Dr. H. S. McGovern, 1006 Bush street. The accident occurred at Fulton and Laguna streets.
The child was taken by the physician to the Central Emergency hospital where it was found to be suffering from concussion of the brain and cuts and bruises. The child was playing in the street when struck.

Children Make Trip Across Continent

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—Three children, the eldest 10 and the youngest four years old, arrived yesterday in San Francisco after a journey alone from Pennsylvania. The party consisted of Virginia Fleet, aged 10; Dorothy Fleet, 7; and Paul Fleet, 4. They were en route to be joined by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fleet. They had been stopping with their grandparents in Pennsylvania.

Transport Sherman Makes Last Voyage

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The United States army transport Sherman, which has been in the transportation service for a quarter of a century, ended its career yesterday when she docked here from Manila. She is one of the transports to be withdrawn from the government service and sold.

Girl Gets Medal For Saving Lives

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Miss Helen Hopkins, captain of a girl scout troop here, is the proud possessor of a gold medal awarded for valor displayed during the Knickerbocker theater disaster last winter. Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover presented the emblem on behalf of the Girl Scouts of America.
Miss Hopkins was seated in the orchestra of the theater when the accident occurred. She assisted in saving eleven lives.
Girl scouts from all sections of the country and members of the Girl Scout Council were present at the ceremonies.

Princess and King To Be Wed Thursday

BELGRADE, Serbia, June 6.—Princess Marie of Roumania, accompanied by the Roumanian royal family, is en route here today on a Danube river steamer to meet King Alexander of Serbia, to whom she will be married Thursday.
The attention of the Balkans is centered on this historic day as royalty gathers from all parts of Europe for the ceremony.
The Duke of York, representing Britain, Alfonso XIII, representing Spain, and the Prince of Udine, representing Italy, will reach here this afternoon.

tions for railway clerks, telegraphers and all other classes of railway employees, except the train service men, was brief and offered no explanation of how the new rates were arrived at. This omission brought more fire from the dissenters, who declared the majority decision did not consider "human needs." Ignored the plea of a "living wage" and made "no attempt to show that mechanics are not entitled to such a standard."
Suggestion for "some recognized standard" to be worked out by the board and used as a basis for future wage adjustments was contained in the minority report, which consumed several times the number of pages in the majority decision. The dissenters felt that the board "should initiate a study which shall determine the amount necessary to meet some recognized standard, and that it must use its results as a basis for its decisions, and that it must, through those decisions, transmit this information to the public."
RAILROADS ATTACKED.
ON RATES QUESTION.
The decision, the minority report continued, tended "to substantiate the position of the railroads that wages need not be established with reference to the needs of the family," contending that a minimum wage for the shop crafts should be 50 cents an hour, which would mean a rate of 87 cents for skilled mechanics.
The savings to the railroads far exceeded anything justified by the savings to the public in reduced rates," the dissenters said, adding that payroll slashes during the last six months of 1921 had been made, including lay-offs, at the annual rate of $1,300,000,000. "In strong contrast to the increasing prosperity of the roads."
The increasing antithesis between the railroads and the public in lowered morale; these reductions will not result in economies, the minority opinion said.
"NOT FOUNDED ON CAREFUL CONSIDERATION OF FACTS."
The majority failed to carry out the function for which the board was created," continued the minority report. "The majority gave no explanation to the public of the process by which the majority arrived at the rates established gives the public an impression that these rates are not founded upon a careful consideration of facts."
The duty of the labor board as a constructive, impartial body in providing means whereby railway employees can have their legitimate human needs satisfied without recourse to stoppages and to enlighten the public so that through the state of unregulated industry and the confusion of propaganda, they shall be able to see the real facts as they affect the body politic. This decision fulfills neither of those duties."

Professor Whitten.

BERKELEY, June 6.—All activities in the college of agriculture at the University of California, both academic and administrative, will be suspended tomorrow afternoon during the time set for the funeral of Dr. John C. Whitten, professor of pomology at the state university, whose death occurred in Washington yesterday.
Dr. Whitten, who resided at 2611 Parker street, Berkeley, went to Washington three weeks ago at the request of the secretary of agriculture to attend a conference of leading agriculturists of the country. He contracted influenza, followed by pneumonia, and died after a short illness.
Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at the home of President J. C. Jones at the University of Missouri, at Columbia, Mo. Dr. Whitten was a member of the faculty of the University of Missouri for twenty-four years before coming to Berkeley four years ago.
Dr. Whitten was 56 years of age and a native of Augusta, Me. He received his master's degree from the South Dakota Agricultural College, and the Ph. D. degree from the University of Halle, in Germany, in 1902. At one time he was in charge of the Missouri Botanical Gardens at St. Louis.
He was a member of the Academy of Sciences of St. Louis, the American Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science, the American Pomology Society and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.
Surviving him is his widow, Mrs. Nora Todd Whitten, and three children, Lieutenant Robert Whitten of the United States navy, now in the Mediterranean; Sylvester Whitten, research fellow at Harvard University; and Miss Martha Whitten, a sophomore student at the University of California.

ANNUAL RABBIT AND CAVY SHOW OPENS THURSDAY

Bunnies of All Sizes and Colors to Be Exhibited for Prizes.

The aristocrats of rabbitdom will be on display at the annual rabbit and cavy show which opens at Jora Park Thursday and continues until Sunday night. The event is being staged under the auspices of the Western Rabbit Breeders and Fanciers' Association and the Golden West Cavy Club.

Exhibitors of all sizes and colors will be on exhibition. There will be the diminutive Himalayan, whose fur milky white about her neck and often thinks it is Russian ermine. Then there is the stately Flemish, king of the rabbit world, weighing fifteen pounds and over. His cousin is the Spotted Giant with his coat of black and white. Other breeds are the New Zealanders, silver Champagne d'Argents, American Blues, Angoras and others.

Rabbit fanciers of Oregon, Washington, Utah, Nevada and California will have exhibits. Beautiful silver trophies, handsome ribbons and cash prizes will be awarded the prize winners.

The cavies offer a novel exhibit. These are the little animals formerly known as guinea pigs, but recently dignified by the more suitable name when scientists determined they were not of the pig family, but belonged to the rabbit and squirrel families.

STARLIGHT by IDA H. MCGLOTHLIN GIBSON

Virginia Fairfax, daughter of the first family of Virginia, rebelled against the puritanical rule of her grandfather, and lived a life of dissipation. She was a woman of the world, a woman of the world, a woman of the world.

"Cut!" came the imperative voice of the director.

I raised my head and looked about me wonderingly and then into Theodore Stratton's face. Then Theodore's words and feelings just acting? I felt that I should find the answer in his eyes. If it all was merely a part of this Land of Make-Believe, I felt that I should die. When the lovelight in my eyes met his they met an answering fire—the fire which had caught my soul.

"I was brought back to earth by the enthusiastic words of the director:

"You three are some little trios! If you get that over for the camera, I'll have a word to say to you. This film has a fortune in it. I was afraid the little girl couldn't deliver, but, by Jove, she is running both of you a close second."

I glanced surreptitiously at Maud Sanson. Her face seemed entirely changed. Gone from her lips was the cold little smile that habitually lay there. Her eyes were pinpoints of greenish light.

The director, under her, too, seemed with understanding. A queer little look moved over her face. "Some acting, wasn't it, Maud?" he inquired.

The director interrupted with: "Just let me tell you, Stratton, that Maud Sanson did some acting, too. You were too busy with your part to pay much attention to her, but I never saw a woman register jealousy so splendidly."

Again the same queer gray veil dropped down over Theo's face. "We'll take it this time. Places!" continued the director.

I felt my body glow at the thought of once more feeling Theodore Stratton's arms about me. I was afraid that I couldn't keep from my eyes a look of eager anticipation and I was glad that I faced away from the camera.

"Now, Stratton! Turn quickly, Doris!" He didn't have to give any more directions, for as Theo glided toward me and seated himself beside me, with his eyes looking deeply into mine, I turned to him just as naturally as a flower to the sun.

"It is true that you love me—" "Little, Stratton!" broke in the director.

Theo spoke into the camera just as the director yelled: "Now, Miss Sanson, come on. Arms about Stratton's neck, Doris. Raise your eyes soulfully to his. You know how; push him back a little. Title, Stratton: 'Child, I know I am older than you are.' Up go your arms around his neck again, Doris. Then forward, Maud. Remember, you are watching him. Now, Doris, your subtitle: 'Love is ageless, changeless. I only know I love you.' My mind was in a tumult. Wild thoughts raced through my brain. Did ever a girl have such a wonderful love-making before? To think that into her mouth was put the words that her heart had been saying ever and over. To think that she could, unashamed before the

PEACE TOUGHER THAN WAR FOR GERMAN TROOPS

BERLIN, June 6.—Fighting for post-war existence in civilian life has proved more harassing than the fortunes of the battlefield to many of the thousands of German officers who survived the war. They numbered some 200,000 at the time of the armistice.

Since the Treaty of Versailles permitted the retention of but 4000 officers in the Reichswehr, a vast majority of the war survivors have been forced to turn to civilian pursuits. Today they are to be found in nearly every walk of life, some having even resorted to the positions of waiter and porter in order to gain a livelihood. Some were connected with trade, labor, or industry through family ties and thus found situations comparatively easy. Others returned to official positions, and a part en-

CROWD CHEERS AS COUPLE ARE MARRIED IN TAXI

Sprained Ankle Causes the Bride to Choose Auto Wedding.

While a densely packed crowd of shoppers and other passers-by looked on, Miss Beatrice Etsburg, 24, of San Francisco, and Harold Carpenter, proprietor of a San Francisco taxicab company, were married in a taxi in front of the Oakland city hall today.

The novel setting for the ceremony was only one feature of a wedding that will be "a la taxi" from start to finish. The couple drove over from San Francisco in a taxicab. The bride sat in the taxi in front of the hall of records while the marriage license book was brought out to her to sign. The wedding ceremony was performed in the taxi. In the taxi the two went on the honeymoon to Southern California. And after they return home the taxi, with others of its kind, will produce the couple's income.

TAXI SAVES DAY.

It was a sprained ankle sustained by Miss Etsburg shortly before the date she had set for her wedding that suggested the taxi marriage. If she were to go through the usual procedure, which would necessitate walking to the marriage license counter, up the aisle to the minister, and so on, she would have to postpone her wedding indefinitely. But the taxi saved the day.

In front of the city hall, Carpenter left his bride-to-be in the car while he summoned Police Judge Mortimer Smith from his courtroom. Miss Olga Etsburg, sister of the bride, and Edward Sullivan, general manager of Carpenter's taxi company, were ready to act as attendants.

USUAL CROWD GATHERS.

The sight of the preparations for the wedding ceremony caused a crowd to gather, until traffic past the city hall was blocked. The top of the automobile was let down, so that the crowd might obtain an unobstructed view of the ceremony. While street cars and automobiles halted, and cameras on the inner edge of the crowd clicked, Judge Smith pronounced the two man and wife. The crowd cheered, and a din of auto horns and trolley gongs rose in salute.

The newlyweds left at once for Bakersfield, whence they will taxi to Los Angeles and back to San Francisco. There they will live at 100 Bertha street. The bride's former home was at 723 Hyde street, San Francisco.

Claim Columbus

Was An Armenian

ALEXANDROPOL, Armenia, June 5. (United Press).—That Christopher Columbus was an Armenian and that his correct family name is Kholumbian, is the claim put forward by Miss Olivia Hill of New York, who has spent the past year in Armenia with the Near East Relief.

Columbus has been claimed by the Spaniards, Jews, Moors and Italians with a few sections still unheard from.

The Armenian claim was first brought to Miss Hill's attention by prominent Armenian scholars, and she has since ascertained that several families of this name still exist in Central Armenia, all of whom assert their close relationship with a Spanish branch of the family from which Christopher Columbus is supposed to have come.

A very complete record of the early history of the Kholumbian family is said to have been included in the manuscript library of the ancient Armenian monastery church at Echmiadzin, but was removed to Petrograd for safe keeping early in the war.

Richmond Resident

Weds Sacramento

RICHMOND, June 6. George M. Dethle, 427 Macdonald avenue, well known resident of this city, was married to Miss Lucille Harding of Sacramento yesterday, by Rev. Paul Little in the presence of the Wesley Methodist church.

The bride is a native of Indiana and has been teaching school in Sacramento. The couple will make their home here following a brief honeymoon.

Wed in Honeymoon Car

FATHER ABSOLVED FROM LIABILITY

Adoption of a child by its grandfather absolves the father from all liability for expenses of the child's keep, in the opinion of Superior Judge Church, who today granted a "non-suit" and so ended a long dispute over the board bill of Mary Schell, 10 years old, George Schell, father, by this decision will now be able to secure his naturalization papers, held up pending a decision of the case.

Several years ago when Schell applied for naturalization he presented affidavits as to his character from Martin Lauterbach, his father-in-law, and Mrs. Louise Wright, his sister-in-law. But at the court hearing these persons testified that Schell's character was not good, because he had not cared for his child. Investigation disclosed a dispute over payment of board for Schell's daughter, who, with Schell, had been living with Lauterbach.

Stockholders Held Liable for Debts

Stockholders in the defunct Golden State Products Co. are liable for $1500 attorney's fees and for $1,581.50 advanced by Emil Brischner, promoter of the company, in the opinion of Superior Judge H. D. Burroughs, sitting of Judge T. W. Harris. A judgment for the two amounts was ordered entered by Judge Burroughs against Philip Butler, Ed L. Harter, E. A. McCord, A. J. Pearce and F. H. Smith, who were stockholders in company. Roberts, Elkins & Van Fleet, attorneys of San Francisco, sought the $1500 and assigned their claim to Brischner, who brought suit. Judge Burroughs held that in the absence of a definite understanding the creditors must look to the corporation for its debt and the stockholders are therefore liable.

River Wreck Death

List Reduced to 34

BUENOS AIRES, June 5.—Discovery of additional survivors from the wreck of the steamship Villa Franca on the Parana river has brought the estimated death list from 80 to 34, according to advices to La Nacion. Among the survivors were Prof. E. W. Kemmerer of Princeton university and his family. Dr. Kemmerer is investigating South American financial conditions for the United States government.

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau Information

"When does the Board of Medical Examiners meet and where?"

The Board of Medical Examiners meets in Native Sons' hall, June 26 to 29. Examinations will begin at 8 a. m. June 27 and close June 29.

"What is the distance by automobile travel between Oakland and Fort Worth, Tex.?"

The distance is 2220 miles by way of San Diego.

"How is cochineal dye obtained?"

It is procured from a Mexican scale insect. The insect has also been introduced into the Canary islands and the shores of the Mediterranean. It is a very small insect. It is estimated that it takes about 70,000 of them in a dried state to make one pound of cochineal dye. The male is deep red in color with white wings. The female is without wings and is deep brown in color.

Discoverer of Klondike Gold Pneumonia Victim

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 5.—"Sourdoughs" of the Alaskan gold rush days today mourned the death of George Carmack, aged 62, discoverer of the Klondike gold fields. He died here late yesterday after fighting pneumonia since Friday with the same vigor he had used in wringing riches from the frozen north.

Carmack, who was a Californian, with "Skookum Jim," an Indian, panned the first gold in the Klondike from Bonanza creek, August 17, 1896.

News of the great strike brought thousands to Alaska. Two hundred million dollars in gold were taken from the fields he discovered. Carmack became wealthy.

Burglars Rob Jail Of Safe and $572

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASSED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PAYETTEVILLE, N. C., June 6.—Police announced today they were seeking burglars who entered the Cumberland county jail Saturday night and departed with a safe containing $572 in cash and a check for $1200, the personal property of Jailer W. A. West.

Stege Church May Become Memorial

RICHMOND, June 6.—A suggestion that seems to be gathering many supporters among Stege Presbyterians is that the proposed church be erected as a memorial to the late Miss Lillian Carlson, whose dying prayer urged that the early struggles be forgotten and that the congregation might come into larger and better things.

Miss Carlson was a faithful worker for the church. Under the pastorate of Rev. R. L. Webb, the church has grown to the point where a larger edifice is urgently needed.

FILIPINOS FIT FOR SELF RULE, AVERS QUEZON

Oakland Chamber Will Entertain Philippine Senate President at Luncheon.

The training in self-government which the Filipinos have received under the tutelage of the United States has been so well assimilated that the former subjects of Spain are now fitted for the responsibilities of actual self-government, according to Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine Senate, who will be one of the guests of honor of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce tomorrow at its monthly luncheon in the Hotel Oakland.

Quezon is the head of a Philippine commission now on its way to plead with President Harding for Philippine independence.

The luncheon, at which Quezon will be the principal speaker, is expected to be attended by one of the FAMOUS PAINTING SOCIETY. STUTTGART, Germany, June 6. (By The Associated Press).—Rembrandt's well-known painting "St. Paul in Prison," executed in 1627 and valued at 5,000,000 marks, has been stolen from the government art museum here. A reward of 50,000 marks has been offered for information leading to the identification of the thief and the return of the painting.

largest gatherings of the year. Invitations have been sent out to the entire membership, of more than 2000.

"Since 1916, almost the entire government of the islands has been in the hands of the Filipinos themselves," Quezon yesterday told members of the San Francisco Commonwealth club at a luncheon at the Palace Hotel. "In that time public schools have increased from 2934 to 5444. Pupils have nearly trebled in number. Medical resources have improved. Land values have gained enormously.

"There is deep understanding and mutual confidence between the Philippines and America," Quezon said. "What America has done is permanently engraved on the hearts and minds of the Filipinos, and they are grateful."

The luncheon tomorrow will be attended by the twenty members of the Philippine commission, and also by a number of those attending the real estate convention. Among the speakers will be K. V. Haymaker, Detroit real estate man.

LOS ANGELES, June 6—Thousands of delegates, representing twenty-six countries, attended the opening session here today of the thirteenth annual convention of the International Association of Rotary Clubs. While all of the 10,000 delegates expected to attend have not yet arrived, convention officials estimate that 7500 are now registered.

Following a spectacular prologue presenting Rotary ideals and an elaborate opening ceremony, the program called for an address by Dr. Crawford C. McCullough of Fort William, Canada, the international president.

The most important business of

White Woman Is Rescued From Slums of Tokyo

By JAMES McDONALD,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

TOKYO, June 6.—In Honjo, a slum district just outside of Tokyo, there lived the halfcast daughter of a Boston man, who, after years of practical destitution, at last is earning enough money to buy food for herself by teaching English to Honjo policemen. She has been married twice to Japanese, however, and the last marriage resulted in exiling her from friends, the writer being the first she has seen in fifteen years.

During these years she has been almost penniless, and only since she received employment from the police a few weeks ago has she known just where money would come from the next day to buy food for herself and her young daughter. From these years of hardship there remains but one consolation for her pride—the fact that she thinks she is an American.

Mary Susie Rose, or "Marysan," as her policeman pupils call her, was born in the South Sea Islands, on one of the Pelew group, just east of the Philippines. According to the meagre knowledge of her birth, a storm raged on the Pacific for days nearly fifty years ago, and when the island folk awoke one morning to find the sea-calm the remains of an American trading boat were found scattered along the shore. In this wreckage was a man, whom the natives carried to a nearby hut. There a young girl, daughter of one of the minor chieftains of the tribe, nursed him back to life. The man was said to have been Henry Savannah Seagrave, a sailor, whose home was in Boston.

For weeks the castaway watched the horizon from morning until night for signs of a boat, but when none came, like other shipwrecked men, he gave himself up to his fate, set up a blacksmith shop on the island and finally married the girl who had nursed him. In the summer of 1877 he died of fever, and a short time after the woman of the Tokyo slum was born.

Five years later Archdeacon Roald Shaw, of the Mission of the Church of England in Tokyo, found the little girl and brought her to Tokyo, where she was cared for as a member of his family and was educated at St. Margaret's School. When 16, word from the Boston Island home of the expected death of her adopted father caused the girl to leave the Tokyo school to go to his bedside. There she nursed him "back to life," but the German had married again during her absence, and his wife finally succeeded in driving the girl away.

Then Rose consulted Japanese friends and arranged a marriage with a prosperous Japanese merchant. For a while their married life was pleasant, but the husband took to riotous living, and, when their son was 11 years old, he left her.

Meantime her adopted father had died, and as she got nothing from his estate circumstances soon necessitated the arrangement of another marriage with a Japanese.

In 1906, soon after the birth of a daughter, they moved to Tokyo, but intense hatred for foreigners held by the man prevented his wife from communicating with her foreign friends. Accordingly, the wife was never informed of her return.
The woman gave up both her friends and Christian worship for the sake of her husband. Finally he, too, left her.

For weeks the castaway watched
the horizon from morning until night for signs of a boat, but when none came, like other shipwrecked
men, he gave himself up to his

Four Out of Every Five

Four people out of every five who pass the age of forty, and thousands younger, are marked by Pyrroha for its victims.

Does that include you?

Startling as these figures are, they are accurate statistics which your dentist will verify.

When Pyrroha comes, it does its deadly work quickly. It loosens the gums until they recede from the teeth, which drop out or must be pulled.

It forms sinister pus pockets at the roots of the teeth.
Germs breed in these pockets, then swarm throughout the system.

Ill health often follows and serious sickness.

Don't sit idly by and wait for Pyrroha's coming. At the first danger sign, tender or bleeding gums, consult your dentist and begin using Forhan's For the Gums.

If used consistently, and used in time, Forhan's will prevent Pyrroha or check its deadly course.
It is the formula of R. J. Forhan, D. D. S.

Use Forhan's as a dentifrice every day.
Brush your teeth with it regularly. It keeps the teeth and gums in a clean, healthy condition.

Don't put off buying Forhan's until tomorrow. Remember—four out of five wait too long. 35c and 60c tubes at your druggist's.

'LA TENDRESSE' IS TRIUMPH OF MILLER'S ART

Ruth Chatterton as Marthe Delliers Shows Power in Complex Part.

Beauty alone must touch beauty. No harsh hand may be laid on it, no hard heel may stamp its way through it, no raucous voice may disturb its tranquility. Henry Miller plucked the axiom for his own, long ago. It has resounded in that nearness to dramatic perfection which characterizes the stage existence of this player. It is responsible for the reverence with which he attacks his work. There is "La Tendresse" as proof. Henry Miller's drama, Ruth Chatterton, opening the Miller engagement at the Orpheum last night, is fine-grained and musical. Therefore it has beauty as Henry Miller and Ruth Chatterton never lose sight of the fact. It would not be enough to read the lines well and to be congruous in interpretation. It is entirely necessary that beauty be matched with beauty, that the mummies exist between the lines and live in the silence.

TRAP FOR LOVERS.
Of Paul Barnac, dramatist, and his love for his mistress, Marthe Delliers, does the story tell. Between the two there is deep affection, deeper tenderness and the disparity of age. Marthe, boundless in her devotion to Barnac, has a side to her nature that age cannot serve. She finds outlet in the vicarious nocturnal and stealthy companionship of one Alain Sergyl. Friends of Barnac warn him. He lays a trap for Marthe. Concealing a secret in his story, he sends out a call for the men he suspects, then disappears, leaving his mistress to receive the visitors. None of these is the man in the case; it is only chance that sends Sergyl into the web.

Barnac, weary of tramping the streets and ashamed of his plotting, enters his study and sends away the hired eavesdroppers. Their notes tell him that his suspicions are unfounded and joy has re-entered his heart when Sergyl arrives and proves the warning.

DRAMATIC SITUATION.
Later Marthe is faced with disaster and there is acted as splendid a dramatic situation as the stage has offered in years. Barnac forces on Marthe sheets of manuscript. He has written his greatest third act and he would have her give voice to it. Unsuspecting she reads the dialogue and in a breathless moment discovers in it a reproduction of the conversation between herself and her youthful lover.

There is the fire of denunciation and the despair of parting woven together in climax that either stuns the onlooker or melts him to tears. Marthe is sent on her way; Barnac crawls within himself, writing in himself and dragging his life through two years before he again sees the woman who once inspired and kept alive his faith.

There is a waiting reunion and an agreement to meet as friends. Consistently, the Paul's forgiveness, despite his devotion, and Delliers is left to memories and casual contact, with her love still alive and her remaining ablaze.

LIVING CHARACTER.
To Marthe, Ruth Chatterton gives the best that is in her as an actress and a careful student of emotions. It is no moonlight and honeyed characterization that she is called upon to create, but one vital, torn with tragedy and keenly quivering with poignancy.

One must believe that Miss Chatterton mirrors the excellences of Miller's work. There is in her acting a great deal of her own imagination but much of the teachings of her headmaster. It is no shadow on her glory. Although inspiration is as much to be commended as its reflection, art triumphant is a thing as high as the pyramids and as awe-inspiring as a tinted sunset. Its origin does not matter.

Blanche Bates, and Bruce McRae are assigned casual parts in the play and tend the excellence of their understanding to drama that demands excellence and nothing less. Paul Harvey, too.

AMADOR HAS SLOGAN FOR MOTHER LODGE

JACKSON, June 5.—"Amador, the Heart of the Mother Lode," is the prize-winning slogan adopted by the county chamber of commerce for use on all of its literature. It was written by Henry Warrington, assistant superintendent of the Central Eureka mine. Hundreds of slogans were received. Accompanying Warrington's striking line is an unusual design by the author of the prize-winner. It is a map in outline of the state, with only the Mother Lode counties drawn in. Through them runs a golden streak, to denote the Mother Lode. Amador, being the geographical center of these counties, is outlined by a heart, accompanied by the wording mentioned.

8 YEARS WITH BROKEN BACK.
NOTTINGHAM, Eng.—Thomas England has just died here after living for eight years with a broken back. Doctors who examined him after the accident said he would die within 24 hours.

proves himself a deft performer and the remainder of a long list of players are sufficiently responsive. MILLER'S ACTIVE PART.
"La Tendresse"—Tenderness—Miller. Two acts find him on the stage with greatly an exit. The climax demands skillful handling and a careful choice between ranting hysteria and the correct interpretation of tragedy. He must lift through comedy on minute and crawl out of the deluge the next. Love must inspire him, faith give him wings, denouement crush him. Paul Barnac, as he is made to live, is high-power characterization. Miller has given nothing better to the history of the stage. "La Tendresse"—Tenderness—is typically French in its excitations and its shocks, in its perplexities and entanglements, in its twilight and its despair. It is splendidly human for no one is quite as human as a Frenchman in his emotions.—L. S. L.

Regularly they would range from $7.85 to $10.85. You'll find all the new styles from the patent leathers to the suede combinations. From the low, flat heel to the boxwood heel. Black and light colors. You'll find sizes in a splendid range. Come—come—we say—you know the reputation of the Red Cross factory—and you know when you're able to purchase their shoes at a sale—especially when they're all perfect—you have one of those rare chances we read of but seldom find. (Kahn's second floor)

The Bargain Shoe Section

has a tremendous special offering of

Sally Sandals $3.49

Just like the picture with their clever cut-out effects—are patent leather, in sizes for women and misses.

Misses' and children's barefoot sandals Another special offering—for we sold the first lot the first day $1 and now here's the second—sizes up to 2. Come, we say.

the Household Sales

More of Those Glass Mixing Bowls, Set of Five 69c

We sold out the entire lot the first day of the sale and so disappointed many customers. We telephoned for more, and here they are just in time for Wednesday. Come early.

Blue Ribbon dish dryer
Indeed a special underpricing for it is a 98c handy article. The price, remember, is an Anniversary one.

20th Century electric iron
It is guaranteed, $3.49 and is called the "little Wizard." Complete with cord and separate stand. Special.

Electric toasters
Many use them for stoves, too—$3.50 because they are so handy with their flat surface. 110 volts only.

Hand-painted tea sets
A 7 1/2-inch plate, and the Victorian cup and saucer; hand painted on fine white china. Really a lovely set, low priced. (Kahn's third floor)

Leather bags
Yes, leather, with the leather lining, $7.89 are 18-inch in black, brown or mahogany, which is so handy for women to carry.

Factory seconds of white semi-porcelain Dinnerware on sale

Defects so slight you'll hardly be able to detect them—hence the reason, in addition to Anniversary, for the low price.

Sauce dishes, Anniversary, 7c.
Bread and butter plates, 8c.
Breakfast or salad plates, 12c.
Dinner plates, special, are 15c.
Soup plates, for Anniversary, 14c.

Vegetable dishes, the 6-inch, 19c; the 7-inch, 25c; and the 8-inch, 39c.
Platters, 8-inch size, each 20c; and the 10-inch, Anniversary, 39c.
Bowls, Anniversary, are 18c, 21c.
Tea cups and saucers, special, 19c.

To Reduce Dangerous Varicose Veins
People who have swollen veins or bunches should not wait until they reach the bursting point, which means much suffering and loss of shinings, but should at once secure from any reliable druggist a two-ounce original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full size).
By using this powerful, yet harmless, germicide treatment improvement is noticed in a few days and by its regular use swollen veins will return to their normal size and sufferers will cease to worry. Moone's Emerald Oil treatment is used by physicians and in hospitals and is guaranteed to accomplish results or money returned.
It reduces all kinds of enlarged veins, gotters and veins and is used exclusively in many large factories as an unfailing first aid to the injured antiseptic. Your druggist can supply you.—Advertisement.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW
Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.
Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful. And thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair, which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.
Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Advertisement.

is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered talc and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid

SOUL LIVES AFTER DEATH, ASSERTS
DR. FLAMMARION
Scientist Declares He Has Proof of Return of Spirit to Earth.

PARIS, June 6 (By the Associated Press).—Conclusions of Cas-simire Flammarion, the French scientist, from the study of a few hundred cases along purely scientific lines, and apart from religious or spiritualistic viewpoints, are that the soul lives after decomposition of the body, is endowed with faculties still unknown to science and can manifest itself at a distance without the mediation of the senses.
"I have spent fifty years studying the question," the astronomer says,
"and have applied to it the same rules as to scientific research; I excluded every example which would not stand the test of scientific verification."
Among the proofs offered by Dr.
Flammarion are cases of dead persons fulfilling promises, giving notice of their own demise and giving warning of events which afterward materialized, even such as the execution of vengeance for wrongs through mediums previously unaware of the wrongs done.
Among the proofs cited are the following:
The late composer Saint Saens, just before his death, related the fact that on the last day of the war of 1870 while he was dining gaily with his friends at an advanced post, he distinctly heard the chanting of the theme around which he later composed his famous requiem.
The presentation of a misty, and later learned that his friend, the great artist, Henri Regnault, had died that same instant.
AGREED SIGNAL GIVEN.
A patient, says Dr. Flammarion, made a pact with him that if he died before the doctor did he would come back and give evidence of the spirit of the soul. A few months later the doctor's attention was drawn to the movement of a candelabra, which continued until a piece of it was detached and placed on a table as if laid there by a careful hand. Two days afterward the doctor learned that his patient had been dead several days.
The breaking of the candelabra was the sign agreed upon by which the patient was to prove the survival of the soul.

explosion at the Trojan Powder Works in San Lorenzo yesterday when three workmen were instantly killed.
Anthony De Costa has small chance for recovery and Albert Silva is hovering between life and death, according to reports from the hospitals. The others injured are Floyd Cooper, Howard Bronstein, Harry Bottenfield and Fred Garcia.
De Costa and Cooper were removed from the Alameda county infirmary to the Hayward Central hospital this morning. Silva is at the infirmary, where it was reported that he had regained consciousness on several occasions for a few minutes.
The explosion, which rocked the entire Eastbay district, occurred at 8 o'clock yesterday morning when a fire of mysterious origin started in one of the powder dryers. Investigation is being made today into the possible causes of the fire.
The men who were injured were endeavoring to fight the flames.
According to announcement by the powder offices the damage in money amounts to approximately $2500. In 1919 the plant was rocked by an explosion, also of mysterious origin, in which one man was killed and the damage was estimated at $2000.

DO YOU KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT MOLL BUZZER?

Read What It Means in Story of "The Army of a Million Crooks."

What is a "moll buzzer?" An entire chapter in the big TRIBUNE serial, "The Army of a Million Crooks," is devoted to moll buzzers. The "buzzer" is introduced in his native haunts and his clever and tricky ways are exposed. "Moll" means one thing in crook language. "Buzzer" means something else. Combine the two words and you have the "moll buzzer," and you have the most innocent person at times has "buzzed a moll," but this does not make him a moll buzzer by any means.

The first chapter of "The Army of a Million Crooks" will appear in the TRIBUNE Monday, June 15. The "moll buzzer" is only one of the many criminal mysteries that will be revealed.

CROOKS' METHODS SHOWN.

How yegs stew up "grease" in the hobo jungles, the methods used by "dips" to reel you in, the change, the clever stunts pulled by the "sour paper" artists, how a big diamond apparently vanished in thin air and was found again by clever detectives, and the unusual criminal acts of "human torches" are only a few of the things you may read about in this 50,000 word feature on criminology.

The unexplored archives of the Berkeley police school and of Chief August Volmer, president of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, have been opened to the writer of "The Army of a Million Crooks," and from this and other sources the most extensive compilation of criminal peculiarities ever assembled has been written into this exclusive feature.

STORY BASED ON FACTS.

"The Army of a Million Crooks" is not a theoretical treatise upon what someone believes about certain criminals or types of criminals. It is a word photographical reproduction of the criminal himself, studied at first hand, by a writer who has visited prisons, jails, jungles and outlaw rendezvous to meet these lawless gentlemen personally.

The fact that $500,000,000 annually is spent in the United States in fighting outlawry places the subject upon a materialistic basis. The further indisputable truth that 1,000,000 potential workers are rendered worthless through crime is even more important, for if each even more important, for if each $1000 a year, the gain to the nation would be a billion dollars.

More than 65,000 jailbirds cared for annually at the expense of the state and nation constitutes a tremendous liability; a drag upon the producing portion of the population like a flywheel about the neck of the body politic.

The crime book should be read and studied seriously, not with the idea merely of satisfying the curiosity concerning "moll buzzers" and "hoolie warriors," but under an impulse to aid in stamping out the most deadly of all the symptoms growing out of an undeveloped and misshapen civilization.

GIRL NOW WELL AND STRONG

Daughter Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as Mother Advised

Wauseon, Ohio.—"My daughter always had backache and leg-ache at certain periods and could not be on her feet at those times. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing girls so much good so she began to take it. That is, she is a different girl since then, able to do any work she wants to do—although she is still careful not to do heavy work—and so well and strong. We recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers with wailing daughters, and I give you my permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. A. M. BURKHOLDER, Route No. 2, Box 1, Wauseon, Ohio.

Something out of balance will affect the finest clock, causing it to gain or lose. The proper adjustment made, all is well. So it is with women. Some trouble may upset you completely.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct the cause of the trouble and all disagreeable symptoms will disappear.

EASTSIDE BOARD LAYS PLANS FOR BARBECUE FRIDAY

Romantic Early Days of Alameda County to Be Festivities' Theme.

The Eastside Board of Trade has sent a buyer to the Livermore ranges to select the beef to be used at the Spanish barbecue which the organization has arranged for Friday evening at Fifty-fifth avenue and Foothill boulevard.

Real Spanish atmosphere will be presented in more than one way. A contest has been started at which prizes will be given to the individuals who appear in the best Spanish costumes. This contest is open to both boys and girls under 21. It is also announced that barbecued fish, a favorite dish of the early settlers of California, also will be served.

J. A. Sanborn, chairman of the barbecue, announced yesterday that dozens of essays had been received in the contest which has for its subject "Early Spanish Life in Alameda County."

Another feature of the barbecue will be a special "by request concert." The public is invited to send in requests for the musical numbers to be played. Melodious as well as the modern ones will be rendered as requested.

Back of the barbecue is the plan

Husband Is Freed After Jail Night

BERKELEY, June 6.—Because Mrs. L. E. Ferguson charged battery when the complaint should have been disturbing the peace her husband, C. J. Stevens, a painter, was freed by Judge Edgar this morning after a night spent in jail.

Mrs. Ferguson complained to the judge of her husband returning to their home at 1809 Russell street in an intoxicated condition and of abusing her. Upon cross-questioning by the judge it was disclosed that the only abuse was verbal in nature.

"Your husband disturbed your peace, but he did not commit battery upon you as far as I can see," said the judge. "If you want him punished you'll have to swear to a new warrant."

Mrs. Ferguson expressed the intention of giving her spouse another chance to make good.

ARRANGE FOR FEDERATION.
ALAMEDA, June 6.—The members of the executive boards of the Alameda Federation of Mothers Clubs and Parent-Teacher Association will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. O. H. Fischer, Santa Clara avenue and Court street, Friday afternoon, to make arrangements for the next federation meeting. Mrs. E. O. Schetter will preside.

of bringing to the attention of the younger generation the romantic history of Alameda county in the early days. It is also the idea of the Eastside Board of Trade to bring the people east of Lake Merritt closer together and to solidify their community interest.

The barbecue will start at 7 o'clock and the festivities will be over at 9 o'clock.

MANY PLACES ABOLISHED IN SCHOOL DEPT.

Positions in the Attendance Bureau Will Not Be Filled; Saving Is $20,000.

The public school attendance department was reorganized last night by the board of education, and many supervisory positions were abolished, at a total savings of $20,000 per annum in funds unsupplied.

The positions are not at present occupied and will not be.

The board of education also awarded the contract for construction of Elmhurst school, discussed and verified the positions of married women now on the teaching staff, assigned a director over paying the $50 auto allowance to Assistant Superintendent Lloyd Barzee, and made several appointments.

POSITIONS ABOLISHED.
The supervisory positions ordered abolished include the following: Assistant director home economics, half time; assistant director boys' vocational work; director of agriculture; assistant supervisor vocational arts; head supervisor physical education; assistant supervisor drawing; supervisor speech defects; assistant director research department; assistant director research department in charge of placement, half time; assistant accountant, auditor's office; vice-principalships, all evening high schools.

The resignations of five teachers were accepted. These included Miss Florence LaGanke, director of home economics; W. E. Givens, principal of Garfield Junior High school; E. A. Wilson, principal of Highland school, and Teachers Margaret R. Blythe and Martha D. Baker.

In commenting upon these resignations, Superintendent Fred M. Hunter, said:

"These educators have all rendered efficient service. Several of them have served for a long period of years. Permit me to request authority to express for the schools of Oakland the appreciation of the community for their great contribution to the work of the public schools."

C. P. Finger was made principal of Highland school.

J. Fred Anderson, attendance officer and head of the citizenship department, was nominated as principal of the Garfield Junior High school. This brought about a discussion of the probation department, which was held at the same time. Hunter said that things have not been very satisfactory lately because of lack of funds. Hunter suggested that by giving Anderson this additional job and salary, enough can be saved from his other jobs to pay for competent help, with Anderson as a sort of general supervisor.

MARRIED TEACHERS.
The board adopted the plan to make married teachers regular teachers instead of "long term substitutes," their past status. Hunter asserted that two teachers, who had resigned when they married, and returned only during a crisis. They were then regularly employed thereafter.

The general contract for building Elmhurst school was awarded to M. E. Hopper & Sons, at $54,000. The total of all contracts, including plumbing, heating and wiring, will be $84,307.

Justice Waste Is Commandery Guest
BERKELEY, June 6.—Associate Justice William H. Waste of the State Supreme Court, state commander of the Knights Templar, was the guest of honor at a reception held by the members of the Berkeley commandery last night at Masonic hall, Bancroft way and Shattuck avenue, Berkeley.

The reception marked the return of Justice Waste to his home in Berkeley, after a tour in which he attended the convention of knights in New Orleans, and in a visit to the White House at Washington welcomed President Harding as a new member of the order.

The reception, which was attended by the wives and families of Berkeley knights, was followed by a dance.

Placerville Road To Tahoe Opened
The first stage of the season over the road from Placerville to Lake Tahoe will leave Placerville Thursday, according to an announcement made today by officials of the Sacramento-San Francisco railroad. The road has been cleared of snow after several months of work by railroad crews, aided by caterpillar tractors and army trucks.

Although traffic will at once start over the road, it is expected that it will require several days to dry before it will be in thoroughly good condition.

Credit for the opening of the road is given to the Placerville Chamber of Commerce by the railroad officials.

Building Inspector Of Albany Resigns
ALBANY, June 6.—After fourteen years as building inspector in the city of Albany, R. H. Macbeth resigned at last night's meeting of the board of trustees. Macbeth is preparing to leave Albany to engage in the contracting business in the northern part of the state. One of the first settlers in what is now the city of Albany, Macbeth has served as building inspector since the town was incorporated. A. Anderson was temporarily appointed to fill the vacancy. The board to act on a permanent inspector at a later meeting.

Women's Club Plans Series of Debates
The commercial school's place in the business world will be discussed at the weekly luncheon of the Business and Professional Women's Club in their Broadway headquarters on Thursday. Miss Marian Madsen, T. B. Bridges and W. E. Gibson, identified with the local training colleges, will be the guests of honor at the luncheon. A questionnaire will conclude the program.

The discussion is arranged as one of a series which will consider questions important to the business and professional women.

Speeder Sentenced To Two Days' Term

BERKELEY, June 6.—Haste to get to his home in Richmond in time to prepare for a party last Wednesday evening today sent H. R. Bishop, 26 years old, a carpenter, to the county jail for two days.

Bishop appeared before Judge Edgar charged with traveling 40 miles per hour along San Pablo avenue. He was arrested by Officer Peck. The fact that he was due at a party that evening and also that he had no lights on his machine caused him to step on the gas before darkness descended upon him, according to Bishop's admissions to Judge Edgar this morning. He entered a plea of guilty to the charge against him.

Besides spending two days in the county jail Bishop will lose his operator's license for thirty days.

Radio Set Stolen From Exhibit Tent

BERKELEY, June 6.—Radio thieves were busy in Berkeley yesterday when a radio receiving set valued at $10 was stolen from the exhibit of the Vitalls Products Company at the Berkeley Merchants and Manufacturers. Entrance was gained to the tent during the night. The theft was discovered by Frank Skidmore, 1221 Bonita street, manager of the company, when workers were dismantling the exhibit following the close of the fair.

Two youths arrested last week cleared up almost $1000 in radio thefts in Berkeley during the past month. The new operations are also believed to be the work of boys.

CHILDREN'S FRIEND HEARD.
ALAMEDA, June 6.—M. J. White, secretary of the Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Children, was the speaker at the noon luncheon of the Alameda Rotary Club today. White told the Rotarians of the work of his organization and asked their cooperation.

The luncheon was held at the Napa Valley Hotel. Dr. George C. Thompson, principal of the High school, was chairman of the day.

PETTIS TO FACE CLOSE RACE FOR ASSEMBLY SEAT

Connolly of Ukiah to Oppose Member Who Is Seeking Speaker's Chair.

J. A. Pettis, floor leader of the assembly, and one of the first to announce the intention to seek the speaker's chair for the next session, is to be given a close race for re-election, according to the word from Mendocino county. Pat Connolly, of Ukiah, will be the candidate to compete with Pettis for the assembly and it will be a case of Ukiah against Fort Bragg. It is pointed out that Connolly was brought in as a last-minute candidate two years ago and without any campaigning or preparation came within 100 votes of election. His entrance in the race this year means Pettis will have to extend himself and promises plenty of excitement in that district.

From Richmond it is announced that Thomas M. Carlson will run for the assembly place to be vacated by J. N. Long, who was appointed postmaster a number of months ago and who, for the time being, is out of politics. Jules Alexander of Susanville will seek a place in the state senate from the Second District with F. J. Powers, now an assemblyman, as his opponent.

In Oakland the expected took place in the Thirty-ninth district when Frank W. Anderson announced he would run for re-election to the assembly. John Gelder also is seeking the place, as is C. W. Ware, colored. A new woman aspirant to the assembly is Miss Eleanor Miller, who would succeed Rev. F. D. Mather of Pasadena. Mather is seeking F. J. Carr's place in the senate. Carr having announced he would not run.

The minimum quantity of air required for good health is 5500 cubic feet per hour.

Are You Buying Tea FLAVOR or Just Tea?

Tea may be the highest possible quality, but if part of its flavor is lost before you serve it, you are not getting full value.

When you buy Folger's Golden Gate Vacuum Packed Tea (Black Tea or Green), you are buying full-flavored tea, for all its rare fragrance and fine flavor is kept for you by the round vacuum tin. Ask your grocer.

PETERSEN WILL RESUME PLACE ABOUT JULY 1

Reinstated Captain of Police to Give Up $500 Month-S. F. Position.

Walter J. Petersen, deposed captain of inspectors, recently reinstated before the civil service board, visited Commissioner Frank Colburn late yesterday, tendered his respects and promise of future co-operation, and was officially given his reappointment as captain of inspectors.

Petersen was then given a 30-day leave of absence to wind up his personal affairs as manager of the Waterfront Employers' Association. He asserted that he will retire from this position and resume his police duties on or about July 1.

Colburn, in a short talk, stressed his desire to avoid "factionalism" in the police department. Petersen, according to Colburn, expressed acquiescence to this idea.

MATTER OF IDEALISM. In explaining why he throws up a $500 per month job on the San Francisco waterfront to accept a lesser position on the Oakland police force, Petersen said:

"It is a matter of idealism. I still feel that I have a duty to the city of Oakland. I have been 25 years in the Oakland police department and think my services are still worth while to the city."

Regarding the matter of back pay, for nearly two years since Petersen was dismissed, he said he would get that if he has to go through the courts.

WILL DEMAND BACK PAY. "Of course, I will demand that pay and believe I will receive it," said Petersen. "I understand Auditor Harry Williams will hold up the warrant until he has legal authority to pay, but that is a technical formality. I do not believe there is any reason for withholding the money."

Petersen's salary since he was first dismissed would now amount to something over $4000. In being reinstated, Petersen and others contend that he is entitled to the salary all the time, just as he was entitled to the position.

POST AUXILIARY MEETS. ALAMEDA, June 6.—The last meeting of the women's auxiliary of Alameda Post, American Legion, for the year was held last night at the home of Mrs. Fred Baker, president. Meetings will be discontinued until September 12. At that time the new year will start with a reception which is to be given by the auxiliary to the members of the Parent-Teacher Association.

CITY'S HIGHEST TEMPERATURE OF MONTH .85

The highest temperature reached in Oakland during the last month was 85 degrees, while the lowest was 33, according to statistics made public today by the Chabot Observatory. The average temperature for the month was 57.2 degrees, the figures show.

During this thirty-day period Oakland had 19 clear days and 7 cloudy ones, according to the local weather experts. There were four days on which rain fell.

The statistics show to a marked degree the prevailing direction of winds in Oakland at this time of year. During the month the wind blew in from the south on 12 occasions, from the southwest 17 times, 14 times from the northwest, while only once, when it came from the northeast did the wind fail to come from some point along the coast line.

Topics Varied at All-Day Institute

ALAMEDA, June 6.—The all-day institute of the Alameda branch of the W. C. T. U. opened this morning at the Santa Clara Avenue Methodist church. Mrs. C. W. Johnson, county president, was in charge of the institute. The morning addresses were made by Mrs. Mattie Hamilton, whose subject was "Our State Minutes," and Mrs. Mary Bronson on "Union Signal." Others who made brief talks were Miss Mary Helen McLean and Mrs. Emma Stauffer, who spoke on the duty of the officers. The budget and campaign membership plans were discussed by Mrs. Anna Madden Day and Mrs. Jennie Kemp. Miss Jennie Lind gave a resume of the work being accomplished in Mexico, South America, China, Japan and other countries during the noon luncheon.

Captain Frank D. Ebbert, attorney for the National Anti-Saloon League; Mrs. Jennie Kemp, Chief of Police William Wasmuth and the Rev. D. O. Colegrove were the speakers in the afternoon.

Chain Gangs Useless, Prosecutor Holds

The meeting of Alameda county probation officials to discuss a proposal to punish men convicted of failure to provide, by means of chain gangs, has been postponed until tomorrow evening. It was announced today. The meeting was originally scheduled to be held last night at the Detention Home. Eighteen and a half minutes before it was called off a few minutes before it was due to begin.

Statistics have been prepared by Deputy District Attorney Earl Warren to show that the proposed law is not only impracticable, but unnecessary, Warren said today.

"Out of 22 men who were held to answer to the superior court for failure to show up during the past year and a half," said Warren, "it was found necessary to put only three of them in jail. The others, released on $500 bond each, worked and supported their families under court order. It is a useless expense to pay a deputy sheriff $166 a month to guard a chain gang consisting of only three prisoners."

Woman and Girl Bitten by Mad Dog

BERKELEY, June 6.—Discovery of rabies in a dog which previously had bitten two persons was made yesterday at the state hygienic laboratory. The dog, the property of A. F. Fosterling, 1101 Stannard avenue, Albany, first bit Mrs. Fosterling and then attacked Evelyn Hart, 7 years old, 1028 Evelyn avenue. The Hart girl was treated at the Emergency hospital for a bite on the right thumb, while Mrs. Fosterling suffered a slight bite on the arm. The dog died yesterday in the Albany pound. Authorities say both the woman and girl will undergo treatment.

City Museum Plans Will Be Exhibited

Preliminary plans for the new fireproof city museum to be erected on the ex-landed property will be exhibited tomorrow by the city engineer and architect, Gardner Howard Gilkey, at a meeting of the Oakland Teachers' Association. The plans are now nearing completion and will be rushed for the event. The meeting of the teachers will be held at Technical High school.

The Snow African game collection is at present housed in the old Kendall home.

SAFETY CAMPAIGN IS SAVING LIVES

Sunday automobilism can be made safe. This was the announcement of Coroner Grant D. Miller, chairman of the Eastbay Safety Committee, today. Coroner Miller attributes the freedom from accidents in the last month to the fact that the people are cooperating in the safety first campaign, and today he expressed the view that the time is not far distant when the toll that has been marking the Sunday automobilism in Alameda county will be a thing of the past.

"We will always have accidents," said Miller, "but the records of the past four Sundays amply demonstrate that these accidents can be confined to the few unpreventable accidents that we will always have with us. At the same time it should be remembered that these accidents are so few that their number becomes almost negligible. More than 90 per cent of all accidents are preventable and the sorrow that follows fatalities is the more poignant because of the realization of this fact."

Miller believes that the great reduction in the number of accidents of all kinds, fatal and otherwise, caused by automobiles or happening through other cause, is directly due to the cooperation that is being given the safety first drive by the people themselves.

"COMMA" COMES BACK. STANFORD, Eng.—After an absence of twenty-five years, the rare "Comma" butterfly has again appeared in Kent.

Four Arrested for Dry Law Violation

In four raids last night the "dry squad" invaded four soft drink parlors and arrested four men for violating the national prohibition laws. A small quantity of intoxicating liquor was found in each of the places raided.

The men arrested were Jim Driscoll, 6311 Telegraph avenue; Edmond Couke, 1300 Thirteenth avenue; Angelo Ralli, 101 Webster street; and Harry Germaine. The arrests were made by Postmen Wallace Canning, George Berner and Clyde Miller.

KILLED UNDER TRACTOR. PRINCETON, Ill.—Attempting to mount a moving farm tractor Oscar Larson slipped under the machine and was crushed to death.

SHOTS FIRED BY MAN SIGNAL TO BOOTLEGGERS

RED BLUFF, June 6.—Charles Devine, accused of assault with intent to kill, E. W. Gardner, a rival garage proprietor at Proberta, was read after his preliminary hearing in justice court here after he had testified that the shots Gardner heard were fired by Devine as a signal to a bootlegger with whom he had arranged to deliver some illicit brandy.

The complaining witness, Gardner, has a shop across the street from Devine and he claimed that Devine fired three shots at him late one night. Devine testified that he fired two shots but that they were the signal to the bootlegger. Raymond Stewart, an employee of Devine, corroborated Devine's testimony.

RUSS PATRIARCH IN PRISON. LONDON, June 6.—According to a despatch to the Daily Telegraph from Copenhagen, the Most Rev. Dr. Tikhon, patriarch of all Russia, has been sentenced to five years' imprisonment for having opposed the seizure of church treasures by the government. The despatch adds that identical sentences were passed on Bishop Alexei and another high ecclesiastic named Innokenti.

National Guard
Provisions Urged WASHINGTON, June 6.—President Harding in a letter today to Chairman Warren of the Senate appropriations committee, urged retention in the army appropriation bill of provisions for officers' enlisted personnel and National Guard voted by the Senate and approved the smaller provisions of the House bill.

SCHIEDMANN RECOVERS. KASSEL, Germany, June 6. (By The Associated Press).—Philipp Schiedmann, German Socialist leader, and former secretary for foreign affairs, who was attacked by a youth yesterday while on holiday near Wilhelmshohe, had fully recovered today.

'Knickers,' Stick Student's Idea of Harvardizing U.C.

BERKELEY, June 6.—Why should the University of California, and, indeed, the whole bally West, remain "primitive" when it might, and oh, so easily be switching a Harvard stick against its knickers with all the ease and grace, you know, of the East? It is perturbing, perplexing and a bit exasperating, really, to come back to one's own state to find it so backward in the things—well, the things which make a man feel so modern and so jolly well clothed. All of this is said and inferred by S. Haughton Demarest, once a student at Berkeley, but now of Harvard. If he is right, Californians now in the East seeking education from pedagogues, tailors and others, are blushing becomingly, but blushing just the same, at the sartorial make-up of those who have been forced to complete their studies by the Golden Gate. It has been rumored over the tea-cups at Harvard, Demarest says, that a student in Berkeley, who wore knickers on the campus, was laughed off the place for his audacity. The folk back East could hardly believe this story, regarding it as another one of those amazing pieces of fiction to come from the place where the Calaveras frog was reported to have behaved so astoundingly. There was a laugh at Harvard among those who have never lived in the West, but among the Californians there was silence. News of the "indignity" practiced upon the brave wearers of the knickers caused consternation among the colony, Demarest says, for knickers are approved by all of the Californians at Harvard. "Surely," said Demarest, "they are at least an improvement over the dirty 'corps' affected by the Berkeley students." If Demarest's suggestions are followed out, he will be able to take the word back to Harvard, of an awakening of pride in appearance and a reform in regiment. Here is what he suggests as a "model" wardrobe for the University of California man: Derby hat, blue box coat, gray trousers with narrow black stripes, upstanding collar, bow tie, and a stick. If the U. C. man adopts these suggestions and gives a bit more of attention to his English, there is no reason in the world why the Harvard man, in time, should not consider him as no end of a good sort. If you see it in The TRIBUNE tell them so.

Former Pastor's Funeral Is Held

RICHMOND, June 6.—Funeral services for Rev. Amos K. Skinner, former pastor of the Point Baptist church, who died in a San Francisco hospital Sunday, were held today with the Woodmen of the World in charge. Interment was in Sunset View cemetery.

He was a native of Nova Scotia and 60 years old. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Skinner, and two children, Mrs. E. Gamble of Salem, Ore., and Clifford O. Skinner of Richmond, a sister, Mrs. B. B. Jacques of Pasadena, four sisters in Nova Scotia and several grandchildren.

He was formerly pastor of the San Pablo Baptist church, and belonged to the Log Cabin Camp, Woodmen of the World.

Plan Campaign for Saving Redwoods

This organization of committees to conduct the campaign for the park bonds which are to provide for saving of Oakland's redwoods as public recreation grounds will be effected tomorrow evening at the assembly hall in the Bacon building, announces E. J. Engler, chairman of the preliminary community council.

Presidents of the luncheon clubs and the officers of the civic, commercial and fraternal associations of Oakland are invited to deputize delegates from their respective organizations empowered to co-operate in this movement. Only by such joint participation of labor and capital can this park project be brought to a successful issue at the August primary election, says Engler.

McPherson Revival To Open on June 15

The Mrs. Almee Sample McPherson campaign committee met last night to further plans for the coming revival. It was announced by C. Stutesman, campaign manager, that Mrs. McPherson will open the meeting in Oakland on June 15. The last meeting is scheduled for June 31. The preliminary steps in the organization of a choir, an usher force and altar workers were taken last night.

JAPAN'S CRISIS INTENSIFIED AS CABINET QUILTS

Failure to Find Outstanding Leader for Premiership Causes Complication.

By CLARENCE DUBOSE,
United Press Staff Correspondent.
TOKYO, June 6.—Failure thus far to find any outstanding leader to head a new government today further complicated Japan's internal political situation, which was brought to a climax late yesterday by the resignation of Premier Takahashi and his cabinet.

Downfall of the Takahashi government was the direct result of nation-wide political discontent, arising from purely domestic questions and in no way affects or was affected by foreign policies or the treaties signed by Japan's delegation at the Washington arms limitation conference.

The question of who will head the new government was an absorbing one in Japan today. From no quarter was any leader brought forward as the logical choice for premier, leaving the situation most uncertain.

Employment Found For Many in State

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—Polls to the number of 88,183 were filed by the public employment bureau of California during May, according to figures made public by the state labor commissioner. Of these 2800 were given to women. Los Angeles lead all the offices with 2772, while the new seasonal office at Marysville was more than justified expectations by placing 713 persons during its sixteen days' operation. The figures for the other offices were as follows: Oakland, 2752; Fresno, 1744; Sacramento, 1268; San Jose, 1135; and Stockton, 1208.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., June 6.—Reports received here from the Taupo region say earthquake shocks have been felt there daily since May 9.

The Taupo region is in the central part of North Island, midway between Wellington and Auckland.

Head of Oakland C. C. Opens Phone Line to Portland

Here's PRESIDENT KING of the local Chamber of Commerce, chatting with the head of the Portland C. C. over the new circuit just opened between the two cities.

Joseph H. King and W. H. Crawford Exchange Greetings Over New Circuit.

New long distance telephone service between Oakland and Portland, Oregon, was formally inaugurated today when President Joseph H. King of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce spoke to W. H. Crawford of the Portland Chamber.

This new service includes three additional circuits which, according to officials of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, means double the long distance facilities between Oakland and the northern cities.

"This old telephone communication will assist materially in improving the spirit of co-operation between our sister cities in the north and those about San Francisco bay," said President King, "and will aid the Oakland Cham-

RECALL VOTE IN KERN AIMED AT KLAN OFFICIALS

Campaign Launched Against Chairman of Board, Taft's Mayor and Others.

BAKERSFIELD, June 6.—Recall petitions prepared by a public committee opposed to the Ku Klux Klan have been printed for circulation this week in the west side of the city to secure signatures of voters in demanding a special city and district election at Taft. The public officers against whom the petitions are directed are Stanley Abel, chairman of the Kern county board of supervisors elected from the west side district; H. C. McLain, mayor of Taft; George McCook, justice of the peace at Taft, and C. Z. Irvin, Taft city clerk.

The four that the citizens committee would oust from office are members of the Klan, according to Klan records introduced in evidence in the recent investigation of the Klan by the Kern grand jury.

Several candidates are in the field to oppose the incumbent officers if the special election is called.

British Prince Will Breed Race Horses

CALGARY, Alta., June 6.—Four thoroughbred race stallions and five mares have been shipped from England by the Prince of Wales to his ranch near High River, Alta., which he purchased when he visited Canada in 1919. One of the stallions was purchased in England recently by his royal highness for $55,000. The other animals are said to represent some of the best racing lines in the British Isles. The consignment of horses arrived in charge of a special staff sent over from one of the prince's English farms. The animals will be used for breeding purposes.

Activities of WOMEN

Laura Miller Will Wed in September

Among the first of the September brides will be Miss Laura Lindsay Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry East Miller, who will plight her troth to John Knox of Berkeley September 6. It will be the first notable social event for the debutante set following the return of the Eastbay social contingent from their summer habitat. St. Paul's Episcopal church is to be the setting for the affair, with Rev. Alexander Allen, rector, officiating. Later a reception and dance will be held at the Miller home on Vernon Heights.

There will be a bridal retinue comprised of a bevy of the loveliest brides and brides of the past season. Mrs. Monroe Greenwood is to fill the role of matron of honor. Besides, there will be Miss Margaret Buckbee and Miss Elizabeth Watt of San Francisco, Miss Janet Knox, sister of the groom-elect; Miss Claire Knight, Miss Hatherly Brittain and Miss Elizabeth Bliss.

Miss Miller will be one of the loveliest brides of the season and no debutante has been more extensively feted than the fair bride-elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Grant of Fresno are receiving felicitations from friends about the bay following the announcement of the arrival of a daughter in their home June 3. The young mother was Miss Edith Tibbitts of this city before her marriage four years ago. The baby is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Grant of this city.

THE FRAME IS PART OF EVERY PICTURE

As much care should go into the framing of a picture as in the making of the picture itself—for only a framed picture is a complete picture.

Think of the picture you know and like the best, the picture that is the most complete, the most perfect, the most beautiful. Invariably it will be a framed picture. Then try to visualize the same picture without a frame or with another frame. You will realize at once the importance of the frame, that it is truly a part of the picture.

Bring your pictures to Warren's, Inc., to have them fitted with frames that are exactly right in every way.

We employ a corps of trained frame-makers, who are equipped by natural talent and practical experience to aid you in selecting the proper molding and to make it into a frame that will literally become a part of the picture.

For the best photographic materials and superior development and printing service on your negatives come to Warren's.

GIRL SLAYER PRAISED FOR MARKSMANSHIP

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 6.—Letters of sympathy and praise for her "courage and good marksmanship" were being received today by Miss Peggy Marie Beal as she lay on a hospital bed, fighting a battle for life against a wound sustained when she attempted to take her own life early Saturday after she had killed her lover, Frank Anderson, in a local hotel.

One of the many letters received by Miss Beal was signed by a local doctor, his wife and a local nurse.

"Our sympathy is yours," read one of the letters. "The world needs more girls who have the courage and ability to shoot straight. We regret, however, that you shot yourself. There is plenty to live for. The stars are up there yet and the flowers bloom the same as ever."

Miss Beal was on the road to recovery, hospital attendants said.

NURSE KILLED, THREE INJURED, IN CAR CRASH

Automobile Hit by Electric Car Overturned, Nurse
Crushed, Woman Dying.

SAN JOSE, June 6.—One woman is dead, a second is possibly dying and two others are confined to the O'Connor sanitarium here suffering from bruises and shocks as a result of one of the most tragic automobile accidents in this vicinity in many months, occurring shortly before 6 o'clock last night.

The dead: Miss Margaret Heffernan, 30, a nurse.

The dying: Mrs. George White, internal injuries, cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Tillie Tantau, his wife.

The tragedy occurred directly in front of the Tantau home in Stevens Creek road, when an automobile driven by Mrs. Tantau was struck by an interurban street car, overturned and hurled against a telephone pole.

George Tantau had been confined to the O'Connor sanitarium for several weeks. Yesterday afternoon he was given permission by his attending physician, Dr. J. J. Beattie of Santa Clara, to go for an automobile ride, provided that his nurse accompany him. With his wife, daughter and Miss Heffernan, therefore, Tantau rode to his home.

It was just as Mrs. Tantau was driving the machine from the yard of her home, in which it is necessary to cross the Peninsula Electric Railway Company's tracks, that she failed to notice the approach of the car. Mrs. Tantau's machine had almost cleared the tracks, but was caught with terrific impact by the interurban, which struck the rear of the machine, driving it against the telephone pole.

Miss Heffernan, who has no relatives in this country, all living in Scotland, was found, badly crushed and died before reaching the O'Connor sanitarium.

The condition of Mrs. George White remained serious this morning. Suffering terribly from internal injuries and only semi-conscious, physicians were unable to determine at this hour whether or not she is fatally injured. They have hopes for her recovery, however.

A miracle the elder occupants of the machine, including Tantau, escape other than bruises and severe shock.

Several thousands are expected at the first meeting of the Eastbay Safety Council, which will be held Thursday evening at 7:30, at Jenny Lind hall, 2229 Telegraph avenue.

Able speakers will address the meetings and explain the plan for the formation of the Safe Drivers club, which will be organized at the meetings.

The Eastbay Safety Council was organized in the hope of reducing the traffic business of the city.

Washington Notes

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Unless Congressmen take some action immediately the price of coal will be boosted throughout the nation from $1.60 to $2 a ton, officials believe.

Just as the "moral agreement" plan between Secretary Hoover and the coal producers effected a 15 per cent cutting in the retail dealer's price, the scheme with the announcement that increased prices were inevitable.

Recent increases in gasoline prices are under investigation by the department of justice, it was announced today.

There is no connection between the retirement of Boris Bakhmeteff as Russian ambassador to the United States and the recognition of the Russian soviet government, it was announced officially at the White House today. Officials said there was nothing new in the Russian situation.

A provision requiring half of the aliens entering the United States to travel from foreign countries on Shipping Board vessels was stricken from the bill authorizing the plan for the House merchant marine committee. Objections to the provision were raised by the chairman of the committee, who said congress should not be placed in the position of limiting immigration by the 3 per cent law and at the same time boosting it in the ship subsidy bill.

President Harding favors the adoption of a constitutional amendment to regulate child labor. In a letter to Representative John Jacob Rogers, Republican of Massachusetts, the president declared he was in sympathy with efforts in Congress to enact such an amendment and promised to express his views more fully in a message to Congress at an early date.

The Senate and House this afternoon finally agreed on salaries for shipping board officers and sent the independent office appropriation bill to the White House for President Harding's approval. The fight over the salaries has delayed the bill several weeks. Under the agreement six officials will receive $25,000 a year, two may get $20,000, and the rest cannot receive more than $11,000 annually. The House agreed to this by a vote of 140 to 131.

Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, who, with Senator Reed, the Italian ambassador, and representatives of the United States of other foreign governments, criticized in the Senate yesterday by Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, an administration leader, called at the state department today and had a conference with Secretary Hughes.

Lawyers would purchase transcripts of Supreme Court decisions about at half the present price under a House bill passed today by the Senate and sent to conference, providing for printing of the Supreme Court volumes at the government printing office instead of by private contractors. The bill also abolishes fees for the official court reporter and gives him a salary of $5,000, that of a federal criminal judge.

Charges of the department of justice that Alaska is menaced by "fish pirates," who have established a virtual Bolshevik reign of terror, were hotly challenged by Dan A. Sutherland, delegate from Alaska in Congress. Governmental action in ordering three subchasers to Alaska for a war on the alleged "fish pirates" and "coast Bolsheviks" was characterized as "an outrageous insult to the Alaskan people" by Sutherland.

An old-fashioned "give and take" political debate was staged in the Senate this afternoon when Senator Pat Harrison, Democrat of Mississippi, charged the Republicans were "filibustering" against the McCumber bill to prevent the Senate from being plunged into the debate and for more than an hour charges were hurled back and forth.

ENGINEER'S LOG ROILS GUARD OF CITY'S FLEET

As the result of recent entries in the log of the ship "Ella Driver No. 1," war now brews in the western fleet of the city of Oakland, and the whole matter may be aired before Ralph Beebe, harbor engineer and ex-official secretary of the city's navy.

It all started when Fleet Engineer George Hayes found the stern anchor line parted when he arrived at work yesterday morning. After considerable work in locating the anchor, he wrote in the log the following commentary:

"I have come to the conclusion that if the pile driver ever sinks the watchman will never know it till he gets wet feet."

The entry is part of the official records of the city of Oakland.

Now comes the watchman with a protest. The watchman recently picked up a pile of blinding rain, pumping out a barge which insisted on sinking though the watchman pumped from 6 p. m. till 3 a. m. The barge later stopped and the waterfront, waterlogged, and was traded in last week for a new barge which manages to float.

The watchman, however, did his part and wants credit. He asserts he cannot watch the whole waterfront all at once, and if a stern line parts, what is he compared to his recent pumping?

The pile driver in the case, he went up to Admiral Tom Aiken, with various comments from everybody, and will be forwarded to the city hall tomorrow.

Safety Council to Hold Two Meetings

Parents, Teachers
Install Officers

Installation of officers was a feature of the final meeting for the senior yesterday of the Elmhurst Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. Peter J. Kramer, president of Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs, was the installing officer. The new board of directors includes: President, Mrs. F. A. Hemmaway; Vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Anderson; Recording secretary, Mrs. Alex Brown; financial secretary, Mrs. Ira R. Anthony; treasurer, Mrs. John Shafer; auditor, Mrs. W. N. Nankerville; historian, Mrs. M. J. Constock; and secretary, Mrs. C. E. Wilson. Seventy members were present.

Annual reports of retiring officers and department chairmen were presented at the business meeting. The annual convention of the California Congress of Mothers in San Diego was reviewed by the delegates. Mrs. Edward Morgan Jones was among the speakers of the day.

Judge H. W. Pulcifer
Goes on Vacation

Three judges will carry on the work of the justice of the peace of Oakland Township during the absence of Judge H. W. Pulcifer this week. Judge H. D. Wise of Brooklyn township, Judge E. J. Tyrell of the Oakland police court and Judge Elmer Johnson of Alameda will all be in the courtroom during the week.

Judge Pulcifer, who has been state secretary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles since the lodge was organized in California, nearly 20 years ago, is going to Santa Cruz to attend the annual convention of the California Eagles.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against food trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out. They weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative function clogs and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts; the urine is cloudy; full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts! Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to remove poisons and thus cure bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water beverage. Be long in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

WOMAN KILLED BY TAKING DOPE IS IDENTIFIED

Prison Matron Gives Out the Name of Emergency Hospital Narcotic Victim.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The body of the well dressed woman who died Sunday night at the Mission Emergency hospital was identified today by Mrs. Lizette Ryan, prison matron, as Mrs. Margaret Jacobson. She is said to have died from an overdose of narcotics and the police arrested Roy Anderson of 45 Crocker street, on a charge of manslaughter. He admitted that he had given the woman dope. Dr. T. B. Leland, the coroner, ordered an autopsy.

Anderson in a statement to the arresting officers, said: "I never knew this woman before. I gave her some narcotics because she begged so hard." Anderson admitted being an addict for thirteen years. He said he was 32 years old and had been employed as a messenger.

Mrs. Jacobson's husband, Ralph Jacobson, is believed to have obtained a divorce from her. The police are unable to ascertain his whereabouts.

Parents, Teachers Install Officers

The men in custody are: Max Barnett, 22 years old, rent car driver, and Charles B. Reese, who gives his age as 24 but is believed to be much older. He is said to be a gambler and has gone under the aliases of Paul Dumesque, "Dippy" Lee Miller, C. M. Meyers and the "Chewing Gum" Kid.

Through the number of an automobile the police first made their way to the Hotel Gates Annex, where they found Barnett. This was yesterday afternoon. He was not taken into custody, but was kept under surveillance. The detectives determined to keep him in ignorance until they had learned the identity of his accomplice. Finally he made the blunder of telephoning. The officers could not hear his conversation, but they did get the number of his call. This accomplished, he was taken into custody. Three hours later, at 4 o'clock this morning, the detectives descended upon an apartment house at 169 Greenview street. They aroused the landlady, and with her key entered Reese's apartment.

He was in bed asleep, but beside him were two loaded pistols. He was surprised and handcuffed. In his room, the officers say, they found Abrams' wallet, papers and bankbook, but none of his money or jewelry. Later the druggist positively identified Reese as the man, who shortly after noon yesterday held him, locked him in the rear room of his store and escaped with more than $900 in money and jewelry.

The police say that Reese has been arrested and served terms for robbery and grand larceny committed in San Diego, Colorado Springs and Dallas, Tex.

The possibility that the bandit suspects may have been the men concerned in the holding up of Harry Wilkens, automobile man, and the slaying of Mrs. Anna Wilkens, his wife, last Tuesday night, was investigated by the police today. The only foundation for such a theory lies in the fact that a new 38-caliber pistol in the possession of Reese, had one empty chamber, from which a bullet had evidently been discharged.

Detectives Duncan Matheson, who declared this afternoon that he completely revised his theory regarding the killing and expected immediate confirmation of line with the new ideas of Matheson is announced that he desired to question further Garfinkel, the attorney who went to Wilkens' aid after the shooting. He said he would locate Wilkens himself and possibly Walter and Arthur Cantor, sons of the late Charles Cantor, police officer.

Woman Wins Prize
For Freak Flowers

ALAMEDA, June 6.—Mrs. M. Randolph, 2421 Webb avenue, has won the prize for the production of freak flowers. She brought a sample of her garden product to the Chamber of Commerce. The flower is a marigold that should have been as others of the garden. This one elected to be different, however, by throwing out seven shoots at varying heights. The tallest shoot radiated from the main stem at even spaces from the base of the center flower. The center blossom is of the rich golden yellow characteristic of all marigolds. The blooms on the shoots, however, are light butter yellow color. Otherwise, aside from the smallness of their size, they are like every other marigold. The blossom was placed on exhibition in the Chamber of Commerce.

Water, Power Act
Will Be Discussed

ALAMEDA, June 6.—William J. Locke, city attorney, will appear before the members of the Alameda Housewives' League Thursday and explain the workings of the proposed California water and power act. The voters will be called upon to pass upon this act at the coming elections in November.

Mrs. H. O. Tenney, presiding officer of the league, announces that the meeting will be open to the public and anyone interested in the water and power question is cordially invited to be present. In order to arrive at an understanding of the act those present will be privileged to ask questions of the speaker.

Arrests Made by Prohibition Officers

V. Fabre, operating the Key Route Bar, was arrested yesterday by Federal officials and charged with having sold liquor to officers of the department of justice. A large quantity of whiskey was seized.

Among others arrested yesterday were those of A. C. Jensen, 360 Twelfth street, Oakland, charged with the possession of whisky and gin, and that of Charles O'Neil, who is charged with having interfered with the arresting officers at the same address. He Germaine was arrested at 1449 Telegraph avenue, and charged with possession of liquor as was E. J. Coucke of 1200 Thirteenth avenue.

James Driwell was arrested by Oakland police officers at 1639 Telegraph avenue, and charged with illegal possession of liquor.

Detectives Capture Two Alleged Bandits for Robbery of Druggist.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—By means of detective work, the details of which read like fiction of the Sherlock Holmes brand, five San Francisco detectives today captured the two alleged automobile bandits who yesterday held up and robbed Joseph Abrams, druggist of 832 Post street. Of the two men taken into custody, one is said by the police to be a former convict with four penitentiary terms to his credit.

Detective-Sergeants John Dolan and George McLaughlin and Detectives Palmer, Bohr and Rooney were responsible for the arrests less than twenty-four hours after the commission of the crime and one of them was positively identified by Abrams.

The men in custody are: Max Barnett, 22 years old, rent car driver, and Charles B. Reese, who gives his age as 24 but is believed to be much older. He is said to be a gambler and has gone under the aliases of Paul Dumesque, "Dippy" Lee Miller, C. M. Meyers and the "Chewing Gum" Kid.

Through the number of an automobile the police first made their way to the Hotel Gates Annex, where they found Barnett. This was yesterday afternoon. He was not taken into custody, but was kept under surveillance. The detectives determined to keep him in ignorance until they had learned the identity of his accomplice. Finally he made the blunder of telephoning. The officers could not hear his conversation, but they did get the number of his call. This accomplished, he was taken into custody. Three hours later, at 4 o'clock this morning, the detectives descended upon an apartment house at 169 Greenview street. They aroused the landlady, and with her key entered Reese's apartment.

He was in bed asleep, but beside him were two loaded pistols. He was surprised and handcuffed. In his room, the officers say, they found Abrams' wallet, papers and bankbook, but none of his money or jewelry. Later the druggist positively identified Reese as the man, who shortly after noon yesterday held him, locked him in the rear room of his store and escaped with more than $900 in money and jewelry.

The police say that Reese has been arrested and served terms for robbery and grand larceny committed in San Diego, Colorado Springs and Dallas, Tex.

The possibility that the bandit suspects may have been the men concerned in the holding up of Harry Wilkens, automobile man, and the slaying of Mrs. Anna Wilkens, his wife, last Tuesday night, was investigated by the police today. The only foundation for such a theory lies in the fact that a new 38-caliber pistol in the possession of Reese, had one empty chamber, from which a bullet had evidently been discharged.

Detectives Duncan Matheson, who declared this afternoon that he completely revised his theory regarding the killing and expected immediate confirmation of line with the new ideas of Matheson is announced that he desired to question further Garfinkel, the attorney who went to Wilkens' aid after the shooting. He said he would locate Wilkens himself and possibly Walter and Arthur Cantor, sons of the late Charles Cantor, police officer.

Assessors Back STOCK TAX CUT

The California County Assessors' Association will support and urge the adoption of the November election of the proposed amendment to article 13 of the state constitution, according to information received today from association headquarters by Louis J. Kennedy, assessor of Alameda county. Kennedy is one of the sponsors of the proposed amendment and declares his full confidence that it will be approved by the voters.

The proposed amendment, to be known as section 12 1/2 of article 13, would permit the state legislature to pass a law empowering county assessors to tax "foreign" stocks and bonds at less than their full value. Stocks and bonds based on property within the state of California are not taxable in this state, while stocks and bonds and other evidences of indebtedness, including mortgages, of property not within California are taxable at their full value and pay the same tax as other property. Under the present law the combined city and county tax laid on foreign stocks often equals the entire amount of the dividends earned by the stockholder. The amendment would allow owners of these securities to elect to have their securities assessed at a percentage of their full value. The amendment would be distributed to the cities and counties where the securities are held and would be secured by being more lenient to the cities and counties which get much revenue that is now denied them by reason of the owners of these securities denying legal residence in California by failure to list these securities.

The proposed amendment, Kennedy explains, would permit the county assessors to assess the securities at less than their full value, as is done with real estate. "New York and Connecticut," said Kennedy, "went through the same difficulty California is experiencing and adopted laws giving the owners of the California county assessors want. The taxes to be raised by this proposed amendment will be distributed to the cities and counties where the securities are held and would be secured by being more lenient to the cities and counties which get much revenue that is now denied them by reason of the owners of these securities denying legal residence in California by failure to list these securities."

Woman Wins Prize
For Freak Flowers

ALAMEDA, June 6.—Mrs. M. Randolph, 2421 Webb avenue, has won the prize for the production of freak flowers. She brought a sample of her garden product to the Chamber of Commerce. The flower is a marigold that should have been as others of the garden. This one elected to be different, however, by throwing out seven shoots at varying heights. The tallest shoot radiated from the main stem at even spaces from the base of the center flower. The center blossom is of the rich golden yellow characteristic of all marigolds. The blooms on the shoots, however, are light butter yellow color. Otherwise, aside from the smallness of their size, they are like every other marigold. The blossom was placed on exhibition in the Chamber of Commerce.

Water, Power Act
Will Be Discussed

ALAMEDA, June 6.—William J. Locke, city attorney, will appear before the members of the Alameda Housewives' League Thursday and explain the workings of the proposed California water and power act. The voters will be called upon to pass upon this act at the coming elections in November.

Mrs. H. O. Tenney, presiding officer of the league, announces that the meeting will be open to the public and anyone interested in the water and power question is cordially invited to be present. In order to arrive at an understanding of the act those present will be privileged to ask questions of the speaker.

Arrests Made by Prohibition Officers

V. Fabre, operating the Key Route Bar, was arrested yesterday by Federal officials and charged with having sold liquor to officers of the department of justice. A large quantity of whiskey was seized.

Among others arrested yesterday were those of A. C. Jensen, 360 Twelfth street, Oakland, charged with the possession of whisky and gin, and that of Charles O'Neil, who is charged with having interfered with the arresting officers at the same address. He Germaine was arrested at 1449 Telegraph avenue, and charged with possession of liquor as was E. J. Coucke of 1200 Thirteenth avenue.

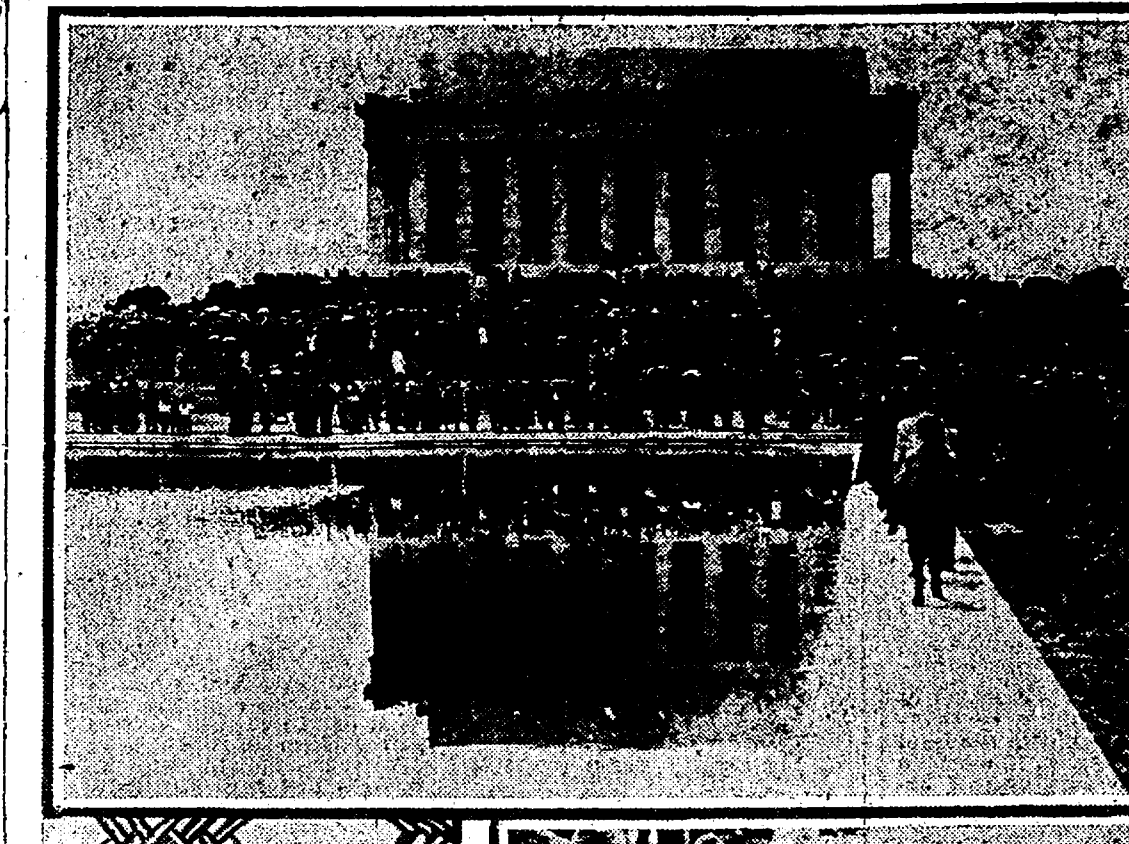

James Driwell was arrested by Oakland police officers at 1639 Telegraph avenue, and charged with illegal possession of liquor.

LEGISLATION IS SOUGHT TO AID ELECTRIC LINES

Realty Men Favor Action to Further Development of Cities' Transportation.

California cities have so outgrown their transportation facilities that their further development will be hampered unless the electric railways can be aided through legislative action, according to Guy W. Wolf, director of research of the California Real Estate Association, addressing the members of the Business Development League at the Hotel Oakland today.

So serious is the situation, Wolf declared, that the real estate men of the state have drafted a constitutional amendment to be voted on at the November election, seeking to remedy these conditions. The amendment would place the franchise granting power over electric railways and over bus lines in the hands of the railroad commission.

"No extensions, worth mentioning have been made by any of the thirty-six electric railway companies in California in the past ten years," Wolf said. The reason for this is that no road in California has been in a financial condition to do so. None of the systems are paying dividends and none has ever paid a dividend on its common stock.

"It will take this constitutional amendment to give the railway companies the aid they will require if they are to keep pace with the growth of our cities," said Wolf.

Welfare League Will Hold Dinner Tonight

The ninth annual dinner of the Public Welfare League will take place tonight in the Young Men's Christian Association building, assembling several scores of prominent men and women. The speaker will be Samuel F. Rutter, state prohibition director, who will discuss "Prohibition Enforcement." Mrs. Mary Merrill, who will review "The Relation Between the Wright Bill, the Volstead Act and the Eighteenth Amendment," John T. Williams, United States District Attorney, who will speak on "Control," and Miss Florence M. Caldwell, representative of the Interdepartmental Bureau of Social Hygiene.

George A. Edgar, president of the Public Welfare League, will preside as chairman. Review of the activities of the League during the past year will be presented by Mrs. Helen Sweet Antia, executive secretary. The annual election of officers will be held.

THE PHILIPPINE MISSION.

Senor Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine Senate, arrived yesterday in San Francisco. He is on his way to Washington, where he will officiate as the head of a commission of Filipinos in this country to urge again complete independence for the Philippines and the separation of those islands from all control of and political relationship with the United States.

Immediately upon landing Senor Quezon issued a prepared statement outlining the position which his mission has assumed. The purpose of this mission is to obscure as much as possible the facts related in the Wood-Forbes report on the Philippines, and to serve this purpose it is hoped to manufacture at Washington political arguments for the anti-administration scolds in the coming congressional campaigns. We quote a basic paragraph in Senor Quezon's argument:

"In 1916, the American people, through their constitutional representative, the Congress of the United States, solemnly promised in the Jones law, the organic act of the Philippines, to recognize the independence of the Philippines as soon as a stable government could be established in the country. The people of the Philippine Islands have abundantly demonstrated their capacity to set up and maintain a stable government; in fact such a government has been established by the Filipino people and has been in operation for several years." The Filipino people have thus more than sufficiently fulfilled the sole condition precedent to the recognition of Philippine independence. The Filipino people confidently hope that America will no longer delay the performance of her own part of the agreement between the two countries."

Now, it is only fair to face that statement with parallel conclusion—by General Leonard Wood, the present governor-general, and Hon. W. Cameron Forbes, former governor-general, of the Philippines, reached after a comprehensive and painstaking investigation of conditions among the Filipinos in the latter half of 1921. There are many liberal acknowledgments in the Wood-Forbes report of the improved capacity of the Filipinos for self-government. But at this time it is necessary to consider the sober, carefully drawn conclusions of these two able American experts on the Philippines. We quote from the official report submitted to Congress:

"We find everywhere among the Christian Filipinos a desire for independence, generally under the protection of the United States. The non-Christians and Americans are for continuance of American control.

"We find that the government is not reasonably free from those underlying causes which result in the destruction of government.

"We find there is a disquieting lack of confidence in the administration of justice, to an extent which constitutes a menace to the stability of the government.

"We find that the people are not organized economically nor from the standpoint of national defense to maintain an independent government.

"We feel that with all their excellent qualities the experiences of the past eight years, during which they had practical autonomy, has not been such as to justify the people of the United States relinquishing supervision of the government of the Philippine Islands, withdrawing their army and navy, and leaving the islands a prey to any powerful nation coveting their rich soil and potential commercial advantages.

"In conclusion we are convinced that it would be a betrayal of the Philippine people, a misfortune to the American people, a distinct step backward in the path of progress, and a creditable neglect of our national duty were we to withdraw from the islands and terminate our relationship there without giving the Filipinos the best chance possible to have an orderly and permanently stable government."

When the publicity statement of the Philippine junket to urge complete separation for the political prestige of Messrs. Quezon, Osmena and others are read in the ensuing weeks it would be well to hark back to these measured conclusions of General Wood and Mr. Forbes. These two distinguished Americans are not urging the permanent control of the Philippines by the United States.

Their stand is clearly stated. They want the Filipinos to have the best chance possible to develop an orderly and permanently stable government. They urge that there be no betrayal of the Philippine people, that they may become a prey to any powerful nation coveting their riches. They ask that the American people commit no such creditable neglect of national duty as to terminate our existing relationship with the islands.

This surely is what the American people desire to be the basis of the nation's Philippine policy. Mr. Quezon and the other members of the mission now in this country are disappointed because the opportunity for political spoliation of the Filipinos so generously handed to them by former Governor General Francis Burton Harrison has been terminated. They want that opportunity back.

But America's duty is to the whole people of the Philippines. And in the fulfillment of that duty it will even be necessary to stand against the native political machine headed by Messrs. Quezon and Osmena.

FAILURE THE PROSPECT.

While Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain may try to "bull it through," and hold the second session of the Genoa conference at The Hague, scheduled for this month, it is not unlikely that the Holland meeting will be abandoned. The prospect of any accomplishment at a second conference on the Russian situation in the near future is so remote that postponement of The Hague meeting is being seriously considered by the British government.

The greatest obstacle to Mr. Lloyd George's program lies in the fact that France and Belgium have definitely turned down his plans and lined up with the United States. It develops that France, Belgium and the United States are in accord on all substantial points regarding a Russian program. In replying to the invitation sent from Genoa to participate in the Hague meeting, Secretary Hughes stated the American position when he said:

The American people have given the most tangible evidence of their unselfish interest in the economic recuperation of Russia, and this government would be most reluctant to abstain from any opportunity of helpfulness. This government, however, is unable to conclude that it can helpfully participate in the meeting at The Hague, as this would appear to be a continuance under a different nomenclature of the same difficulties if the attitude disclosed in the Russian memorandum of May 11 remains unchanged.

France and Belgium are equally positive in the belief in the futility of a conference in Holland this month. They believe with the United States that the nations of Europe and this government should present an unbroken front in dealing with Russia, but they find the same difficulty as this government in accepting the British-Italian viewpoint. For the present there are two sharply divergent groups of governments on the Russia program. England and Italy are for dealing with the Communists to any extent necessary to obtain an early trade advantage. France, Belgium and America place a higher value on the existence of a government pledging guarantees to life and property and free labor. With this last group are aligned the "Little Entente" group of Balkan nations and Poland. The British-Italian attitude coincides with that of Germany.

We hope the American government will not depart from the policy formulated by Secretary of State Hughes. The advantages of this policy will be demonstrated in the end, while there need be no fear of important trade advantages to any nation which tries to establish its citizens in Russia before there are guarantees for private capital and the proper safeguarding of credits.

Captain Raold Amundsen, the Arctic explorer, is to hunt for "phantom flotillas manned by frozen crews." If that is the main object of his impended trip to the polar regions we hope he succeeds in his quest, and that in any event he will not try to duplicate the trick of his colleague Stefansson in raising the British flag over his discoveries.

WHY WE WON OUR WARS.

Writing in the American Legion Weekly, General Pershing again emphasizes the fact that the Army cannot safely be cut down beyond the minimum fixed by the War Department. One point which he makes is well worth reiteration. The old crudely expressed idea that "we can lick all creation" is really at the bottom of much of the opposition to preparedness. "While we boast of having been victorious in our early foreign wars," General Pershing says, "it was due more directly to the weakness of the enemy and his engagements elsewhere than to the exercise of wise foresight in preparation or to superior strategic or tactical ability on the part of our own forces or their leaders."

This is a truth which many of our popular historians have ignored, but which all military historians recognize. The policy of the Jefferson Administration had left us totally unprepared for the war the Madison Administration had to carry on. We won some isolated naval victories, but our land operations, up to the battle of New Orleans, were in the main dismal failures. Had England not been engaged in a life-and-death struggle with Napoleon at the time, the outcome for us must have been disastrous. But that experience taught us nothing, and we have "gone serenely back." In General Pershing's words, "the policy of saving a few dollars here should be spent for moderate preparation in order to meet the billions spent because of lack of preparation."

Are we to repeat this costly error after the bitter lesson taught by the Great War?—Philadelphia Inquirer.

CALIFORNIA CANNING SEASON

NOTES and COMMENT

The Bakersfield Californian tells how it is: "Somebody is always taking the joy out of life. President Harding is looking these days longingly towards California. He knows about our wonderful climate and our excellent golf grounds, and he has planned to come here for a vacation. But something has happened—or rather something has not happened. Congress is still in session. It has not adjourned. It has not done its work yet. Indeed, it may be said that it hasn't done anything at all. So President Harding can't perfect his plans for coming to California in the absence of knowing when Congress is going to do something, and when it is going to adjourn."

Chicago Tribune in a cynical vein: "The University of California took the inter-collegiate games at Cambridge Saturday. It repeated the performance of the year before, when its athletes were the best point winners. Some of the virtues of our most celebrated, bawling Florida, climate may be fictitious. It may not be able to change an earthquake into a fire. It does permit occasional political aberration. It gave us a people willing to divide our fleet for pork purposes while they were provoking war with Japan. It is not a cure for all eccentricity of the human mind, but it is great for sinew."

Salt Lake Tribune on the rush of tourists to Europe: "Outgoing Atlantic steamers are crowded to the limit of capacity by Americans bound for Europe. If the rush continues, the tide of travel across the ocean will soon exceed that of previous years. The money spent abroad by these Americans is a godsend to Europeans and they are making the most of their opportunities. It is possible, however, to 'kill the goose that lays the golden egg.' In Munich the tradesmen charge special high prices to Americans only. Such high-handed robbery should and doubtless will keep many Americans away from that locality."

New York Times on sovietism in industry: "New light is beaming upon the economic man. In the garment industry the union, avowedly socialist, has established favorable wage scales and working conditions—so favorable that enemies of their own household are double-crossing them. Small groups of workers that call themselves Soviets have set up predatory competition. In the stock season they work long hours for small pay, and in the rush season they demand any pay they can get. The better sort of manufacturers do not like these Soviet shops, the workman-ship in which is generally poor; but, faced with the union demands for short hours and piece work and high wages, they may be forced to resort to them."

Fresno Herald: "Bankers should be bankers and not politicians. This, evidently, is the belief of stockholders of the First National Bank of San Francisco who have instituted a movement which has for its object the removal of Rudolph Spreckles from the presidency of the institution. The water and power act is the last straw. He is a strong advocate of this act. In fact, it has been said that it is fathered in the Spreckles offices. The movement to retire Spreckles is not confined to stockholders. It seems to be a matter of concern among bankers in general."

It is a good thing that William Vortriede, State Gardener, has accepted a place upon the State Highway Tree Committee. He is a lover of trees and one of the best informed men regarding them in all California.—Sacramento Bee.

The San Francisco police are to "start a war on crime" on account of the dastardly murder of a woman by two auto bandits. Why start so late? If anything could have been accomplished, why was the starting of the war prolonged?—Hanford Sentinel.

If a fellow told a whole lot that was untrue about you, and when he was proved to be a liar and refused to apologize, what would you think of him? That's what Kings county seems to have to go up against in the "hood" question.—Hanford Sentinel.

Why You Should Consider Headache a Danger Signal

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

There are sold in this country enormous quantities of headache waters, tablets, pills and drops. Nobody can bear to suffer the agony of pain when a dose of some sort of medicine will overcome it. Consequently every household and office has its headache cure.

An otherwise healthy person may not be damaged by an occasional dose of such medicine. But when it is remembered that practically all these drugs are habit-forming and many of them heart depressing, common sense tells you to avoid them if you can.

If you are subject to headaches and give them no study except to find a new-fangled drug, you are neglecting your health.

What do I mean by this statement?

Headache is a symptom. It is not a disease. When you have a headache—don't say "nothing" wrong with you. A single headache or an occasional headache may be the sign of a passing ailment of some kind. If you have daily or weekly or periodical headaches there is some underlying condition which demands attention.

Headaches are danger signals. They should be heeded just as the same as are red lights, horns, bells and railroad signals.

You would count a man crazy if he drove his horse along the highway, absolutely disregarding the danger signals displayed. How much more important are Nature's warnings, and yet it is a common experience to find them disregarded. You might as well drop your hat over a red lantern marking the spot of a deep cut in the road and then, because the light is gone, imagine your horse is safe from danger. Masking a powerful symptom by the use of a powerful drug does not remove the health hazard which the headache was sent to warn against.

When you have headaches you should find out why. What are the causes?

Headaches in the night, associated with loss of sleep, restlessness and especially with vomiting, dizziness and loss of sight are serious in their import. Such headaches may indicate something wrong with the brain or the blood.

Other headaches are caused by interference with the circulation in the brain. There may be too much blood or too little blood. Mental overwork, exposure to the sun or the temperature of fever, even if only slightly above normal, may cause congestion of the brain to the extent of causing headache.

Such headaches, as these, you will see at once, cannot be permanently relieved by taking drugs. First, attention must be directed to the removal of the underlying trouble.

Headaches due to anemia from excessive, prolonged overwork, or general ill health, are not uncommon. Fainting is a common accompaniment.

There is another type called "reflex" headache. These may come from ovarian or uterine disease. In this case they are apt to be on top of the head. Stomach disturbance produces headache. Perhaps the most common of the reflex headaches are those coming from eyestrain or overuse of the eyes.

The headache noticed on waking up in the morning especially if the pain is at the base of the nose, may be due to nasal catarrh.

Bright's disease, diabetes, gout, excessive use of alcohol of tobacco, and neurasthenia are other conditions resulting in headache.

Find the cause of your headache and remove it. Don't undermine your health by the habitual use of headache cures and by the neglect of your body.

OAKLAND WOMEN ORGANIZE FOR SHRINE EVENTS

Eastbay ladies whose husbands or other relatives are Shriners are organizing this week for the important part they are to take as controlling factors in the social activities incident to the gathering of the Imperial Council next week.

A ladies' executive committee was named today, consisting of Mrs. Thomas W. Norris, wife of the illustrious potentate of Ahmes temple (chairman), Mrs. Lawrence E. Lund, Mrs. Otto H. Fischer, Mrs. George H. Harris, Mrs. W. F. D. Brown, Mrs. Arthur Helronimus, Mrs. Robert F. Edgar, Mrs. H. A. Stiver, Mrs. Maurice S. Stewart, Mrs. Wager Smith, Mrs. B. A. Forrester and Mrs. Lincoln S. Church.

The ladies' executive committee will designate a large number of sub-committees for the different activities of Imperial Council week, and within a day or two an effective force will be enlisted for planning and carrying out the extensive series of entertainments that the presence of so many visiting ladies accompanying delegates to the Imperial Council is calculated to inspire.

Harding's Temple Will Be Honored

TACOMA, Wash., June 6.—President Harding, the Shriner, will be indirectly honored early Saturday morning in Chehalis when 1200 delegates to the State Republican convention greet the special train bearing Aladdin temple of Columbus, O., to the 48th annual pilgrimage to the Imperial shrine council session in San Francisco.

Plans for the reception of President Harding's temple in Chehalis were announced today by Guy E. Kelly of Tacoma, national Republican committeeman.

The Aladdin temple special leaves Tacoma at 1 o'clock Saturday morning after the evening ball and massed band concert in the stadium. It is due in Chehalis about 2 o'clock, where it will be met by a band and the delegates to the state convention, according to plans arranged today.

It is expected that the Aladdin shriners will respond in behalf of their presidential member with a short drill by the Arab patrol and a few selections by the 60-piece band.

HOSPITALITY FOR NOBLES IS UNSTINTED

Entire San Francisco Bay Region Is Being Profusely Decorated; Many Events
Planned for the Visitors

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—All former hospitality efforts at Shrine conventions will be eclipsed next week when the thousands of Shriners attending the Imperial Council sessions will be assembled in the San Francisco bay region with their families and friends, and thousands of other visitors.

The entire region is being profusely decorated with the Shrine colors of red, gold and green. San Francisco's Chinatown is making extensive preparations to decorate its streets and houses as only the sons of the quondam Celestial Empire are wont to do. An arch of welcome is being erected at Grant avenue and Bush streets, and here complete information will be available for the visitors in regard to the Chinatown tours and points of interest.

FETES IN AUDITORIUM.
The civic auditorium will be the scene of balls, entertainments, concerts and vaudeville performances during every night of Shrine week. Here also will be held an exposition of California products. Between the great street parades, there will be an Imperial Potentate's ball on Tuesday evening, June 13, simultaneously at the auditorium, the Winter Garden and the Arena Dance Hall, and here also be life-saving exhibitions at the beach, fire drills, military drills and parades at the Presidio on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; band concerts at the Presidio and Lincoln Scott fireworks at the Civic Center on Thursday night at 10:30 p. m., boxing contests at Dreamland rink, Tuesday, 8 p. m., golf matches, aquatic carnivals at Sausalito on Wednesday afternoon, horse races in Golden Gate Park stadium on Tuesday afternoon, trapshooting at the Lakeside traps Wednesday and Thursday mornings, and races at San Carlos track Wednesday afternoon, rodeos, aviation, etc.

ALL TO EXTEND WELCOME.
Plans for the entertainment of the Shriners have been made by every community in the bay region. The Monterey peninsula towns are making plans to show the visitors the missions and the historic spots of Carmel and Monterey, and the Seventeen-Mile drive.

A small redwood building, to be used as automobile headquarters during the Shrine convention, was officially transferred yesterday to the Shrine committee by the Redwood Association. The building is at Grove and Larkin streets, near Captain Eddie Rickensacker, premier American ace, is flying from Washington, D. C., bringing a letter of President Harding to the Shriners.

DRIVER INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Suffering from a fractured skull, the result of an automobile crash on Twelfth street, near Jefferson, W. F. Coker, 63 years old, was rushed to the Emergency hospital this morning.

Soker, who is an automobile salesman residing at 524 Thirteenth street, was driving down Twelfth street when his machine was hit by an unidentified car, the driver of which did not stop. Coker was taken to the hospital by C. R. Pike, a passer-by who witnessed the accident.

Veterans of Indian Wars Meet After Forty-Six Years

Two veterans of the United States Army who saw fighting together in Wyoming and Montana against the Sioux Indians under Chiefs Sitting Bull and Gall in 1876 were brought together last week for the first time in 46 years, when Dr. V. T. McGillicuddy of the Hotel Claremont, and R. B. Stuart of 2435 McGee avenue, both of Berkeley, met as members of the Shrine hospitality committee for Wyoming and the two Dakotas, of which Dr. McGillicuddy is chairman.

"Doctor, weren't you a surgeon with General George Crook's outfit that went out from Fort Laramie in the spring of 1876?" Stuart asked.

"Yes," "I remember you," Stuart went on, "and I remember the last time I saw you, at the battle of Rosebud Mountain, on June 17, 1876—amputating the fingers for a member of my troop in the Third Cavalry, who had had a hand shattered in the fighting. I helped bring him in, and you laid him out for the operation behind a plum thicket, as the most convenient shelter from the Indian bullets."

"Yes, I recall you now—you were a first sergeant," said the doctor. "They started you back to Laramie the day after the battle, conveying the wounded."

"I think old Sitting Bull pretty nearly had our 1100 men sewed up in a sack that day, Doctor. What do you think?"

"We were convinced of it afterwards," the doctor replied. "We wondered why he withdrew so suddenly after corraling us. We knew now, it was because he knew what we didn't know—that Custer was on his way in from the other side, and only a few days' marches away. He merely let us go because he saw a chance to wipe out Custer—and he did wipe him out just eight days afterwards, and at a point less than fifty miles from where he gave us the fight."

"What was all the Indian fighting I wanted," Stuart admitted. "As my enlistment had expired, I took my discharge when we got back to Laramie. But tell me, where was Crook's command when you got word that Custer was wiped out?"

"In camp on Goose creek, where Sheridan, Wyoming, stands now," the doctor said. "Louis Richard, a brood scout from Reno's outfit, rode in and told us three days later."

Dr. McGillicuddy's committee expects to receive a similar honor to West in Oakland next Monday morning.

Head of Shriners' Auxiliary Dies

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., June 6.—Mrs. George K. Benner of Pittsburgh, Pa., one of the most prominent women in Masonic auxiliary circles in Pennsylvania, died here last night after she was taken from a Shrine special train en route to the Shrine convention at San Francisco. Mrs. Benner was taken ill at Grand Canyon. Five physicians, who were on the special train, gave Mrs. Benner treatment while en route to this city. Mrs. Benner was president of the York Ladies Club, the largest Shrine auxiliary in the world.

Shriners' Caravan Arrives at L. A.

LOS ANGELES, June 6.—The first trans-continental automobile caravan carrying Shriners to the convention at San Francisco arrived in Los Angeles today, piloted from the California state line by scouts from the Automobile Club of Southern California. There are 15 cars in the caravan bringing Shriners from Washington, D. C. The party, which is in charge of Bernard S. McMahon, left Washington May 1.

LAKE LIGHTS, FOUNTAIN TO BE FEATURES BIG PARADE IS PLANNED FOR JUNE 14

Beautiful Display and Illumination Arranged on Merritt Island; Surpassing Splendor Shown

The superlative in spectacular effects for the approaching session of the Shrine Imperial Council will be attained by means of a giant electric fountain in Lake Merritt, to be operated every night next week as a part of the illumination for "A Night in Venice," according to a statement issued today by Chairman Harry S. Anderson of the committee having the undertaking in hand.

Specialists in the subject of illumination have been studying the case for several weeks, and Anderson says, have finally perfected their plans and have assembled all the necessary and most electrical equipment for carrying it out. The plant will be installed this week and the huge fountain will be turned on for the first time next Sunday night, the other illumination of the lake.

SURPASSING SPLENDOR.
"The material we have assembled will give an effect of surpassing splendor, Anderson has said. "It is capable of producing an almost endless variety of conventional and fantastic figures through the medium of multi-colored lights playing against a lofty tower of water as it breaks and descends in spray."

"Several massive columns of water, reared and sustained by a battery of powerful pumps placed on an improvised structure, these shafts of solid water, approximately 100 feet high, may be spread and joined at their apexes as desired, to work out any design at the will of the operator."

VARYING COLORS, TINTS.
"For example, the operator may fashion a gigantic cluster of plumed stalks or a group of sequoias and maintain it indefinitely, at the same time illuminating it from within by a system of electric lights in varying colors and tints, while the largest searchlight that we could find in the Pacific Coast will play upon the mass from without from the roof of the Municipal Auditorium."

"A chain of alternating red, gold and green lights surrounding the lake and a similar lighting scheme on the municipal boat-houses and on all pleasure boats will furnish a glittering background for the huge fountain, which will be the climax in the way of spectacular features for a spectacular week."

City Will Spend $3000 for Visitors

An ordinance appropriating $3000 toward the entertainment of the Shrine guests was passed to print this morning by the City Council, which transferred various items into the entertainment fund for that purpose.

A request was received from the Southern Pacific, asking that trains longer than two cars be allowed on its Oakland system during Shrine week. The city has already been granted that privilege. The Southern Pacific's request was referred to the mayor.

A communication was received from the Golden Gate Improvement Club in protest against a rumored change of the names of Vallejo, Fremont and Marshall streets. The club says these are names of pioneers and should not be changed.

Oakland Decorates For Shrine Week

Commissioner Carter of the public works department today ordered the city hall "dressed" for Shrine week.

At the Washington street entrance will be a big "welcome" banner, with a Shrine design. Flags will appear at every window. Porticoes of spotlights will play on the gardens nightly and the Christmas streamers of colored electric lights will be run over the big building for night display. There will also be colored lights on the tower.

Work on the transformations began today.

This Is the TRIBUNE Crystal Set

A set designed by TRIBUNE radio experts and guaranteed by The TRIBUNE to receive all the stations around the bay.

"A set that will surprise the radio fans" is how a radio engineer described the new crystal set that is being manufactured for The TRIBUNE Radio club members. The first of the new sets produced results far above those hoped for. The effectiveness and selectivity of the new set is credited to the hook-up, which is declared to be as good as can be made for a crystal set.

Ten new three-months' subscriptions to The Oakland TRIBUNE gets you this set absolutely free.

How Larry Boosted the Game

"Larry," said the young man with the slicked-back hair and the wasp-waist, "I want you to do me a big favor. I've just met a girl who's visiting here from Toledo and I've fallen for her strong. Now, I want to make a good impression on her—sort of let her get the impression that I'm well-to-do. In fact, I don't care if she goes so far as to think I'm wealthy, but I don't want to do too much bragging in front of her about what I've got. So that's where you fit into the game."

"How do I fit into the game?" inquired Larry, who was by the way of being rather a rugged and untutored person. "Easy enough," said the conspirator. "Tomorrow I've got a date to buy her a lunch at the Claridge. We'll be sitting at one of the tables against the back wall. Along about 2 o'clock you drop in there as if by accident. I'll have you call you over to our table and introduce you to Miss Ferguson—that's her name. Gertrude Ferguson—and insist on your sitting down with us. Then I'll start in talking about myself. I'll be sort of backward and diffident in referring to my own possessions, but every time I mention anything that belongs to me, that'll be your cue to interrupt and go the limit, swelling me. Understand, you're to interrupt and go the limit. It's boost and boost and keep on boosting until you make her believe that I'm a young millionaire, and all the time I'll be getting credit in her mind for modesty."

"I get you," said Larry. "Leave it to me." The scene shifts to the following afternoon at Claridge's. Prompt on the appointed hour the well-meaning Larry appeared. The chief waiter called him across the restaurant and he was duly presented to the fair Miss Ferguson, and, by invitation, took a seat. His friend took up the thread of his narrative. "I was just saying to Miss Ferguson," he explained, "that last Sunday I was out at my little place in the country. 'Place in the country—huh!' broke in Larry. 'Listen to that, will you, lady; he calls it a place in the country. It's an estate, that's what it is—a regular estate, that's all.' The suitor smiled tolerantly and went on. 'Well, anyhow,' he resumed, 'I was out there at my shack. 'Ain't that just like you?' proclaimed Larry. 'Shack, huh? It's a palace, that's all—a palace, I'll tell the world.' 'No matter, old man,' continued his friend. 'What I was going to say was that I called the maid, and I told her. 'You called the maid?' clarified the co-conspirator. 'Why don't you say you called one of the maids. Near as I remember, you've got five or six maids hanging 'round that palace, not to mention a couple of butlers and one thing and another.' 'Have it your own way, old chap,' resumed the slick-haired one with a sidelong glance at Miss Ferguson to see what the effect upon her was. 'I called one of the maids, if you prefer to put it that way, and I told her to bring me some burnt sugar and some hot water and a little whiskey. You see, I've got a cold. 'Cold?' whooped Larry. 'Listen, lady, do you hear this guy sayin' he's got a cold? What he's really got is gallopin' consumption!'"

Uncle Wiggly Stories

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE HAPPINESS BIRD

WHEN Uncle Wiggly Longears was hopping through the woods one morning, a few days after the Blue Jay had saved him from the ear-nibbling Fuzzy Fox, the bunny rabbit gentleman met Dr. Possum. "Hello, Dr. Possum," called Uncle Wiggly, in his most cheerful voice, and with a jolly twinkle on his pink nose. "Isn't this a beautiful day? And how lovely everything is—the song of the birds and the green of the trees, and the chorus of the babbling brook!"

"Hum!" murmured Dr. Possum, as he took another turn of his tail about his bag of medicines. "I wish Grandpa Goosey was as happy as you. He'd get well much more quickly!" "Don't tell me my old friend Grandpa Goosey is ill!" cried Uncle Wiggly. "What is the matter? Has he lost his quack?"

"Partly," answered Dr. Possum. "He caught a cold and he insisted on going out to paddle in the mud puddles before he was well. Then he caught more cold and has to stay in bed. However, I have cured him of the worst of his illness, only he doesn't know it."

"What do you mean, he doesn't know it?" asked Uncle Wiggly. "Is Grandpa Goosey staying in bed just for fun? Doesn't he want to get up and waddle around?"

"It doesn't seem so," answered Dr. Possum. "Grandpa Goosey is very gloomy and unhappy. He looks from his window and sees the cloudy sky, and, turning over in bed, he sighs and drowsily quacks and goes to sleep again." "Well, the sky has been cloudy part of the time," said Uncle Wiggly. "That is because we have had so much rain. But there is plenty of blue sky to be seen if one will but look for it."

"That's just the trouble!" said Dr. Possum. "Grandpa Goosey is so unhappy he will not look for the blue sky. If I could once get him to look out when the sky is blue he would be happy and would quickly be all well again."

"I'll go over and see if I can cheer him up," said Uncle Wiggly. "I wish you would," spoke Dr. Possum. "Go soon!" "And soon as I get some crumbs to feed the birds," promised the bunny. "Every day now I feed the birds, and it is time for their crumbs. Then I'll go to Grandpa Goosey."

"Will you do me a favor?"

Bird, because I shine bright on even the darkest day," was the answer. "But my real name is Blue Bird."

"I like the name Happiness Bird best," said Uncle Wiggly, "and so I shall call you that." "Thank you!" laughingly sang the Bluebird, as he picked up the last of the crumbs. Up he flew to a tree, and once again Uncle Wiggly thought part of the beautiful sky was glittering through the dark forest. Then Uncle Wiggly had an idea.

"Oh, Happiness Bird!" cried the bunny, "will you do me a favor?" "A thousand if need be," was the jolly answer. "Just one is enough!" laughed the bunny. "I wish you would fly past the window of Grandpa Goosey's house. Flash your bright blue wings near his window, and when he sees you he will think he sees the blue sky. Then he will be happy and get well sooner."

"I'll do that!" promised the Bluebird. Uncle Wiggly hopped on to the duck pen house of Grandfather Goosey Gander. He found Grandpa Goosey in bed.

"Why don't you get up and come out with me?" asked Uncle Wiggly.

"Oh, I am too ill!" too sick and miserable!" quacked Grandpa Goosey. "The sky is so dark and gloomy! Look at the clouds! Nothing but clouds! Always clouds!"

Just then a flash of blue was seen. It passed Grandpa Goosey's window, was gone for a moment and came back again. Again it flashed, bright blue!

"Why! Why!" quacked Grandpa. "Did you see that, Uncle Wiggly? I believe it is clearing off! I saw some blue sky! The clouds are going! I'll come out with you! Hurry! I saw some blue sky for the first time in days!"

Grandpa Goosey arose and dressed. And when he waddled outside with the bunny gentleman the sun was shining. And in a tree not far away, the Happiness Bluebird sang a song of Joy.

"Then thank the Bluebird!" laughed Uncle Wiggly, and Grandpa did. And if the potato masher doesn't step on the foot of the stairs and make them turn a somersault so the carpet goes up instead of coming down, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the night bird.

SAM HALE AND JOE KELLY SEEKING P. C. L. HITTING CROWN

ELMER PONDER OF LOS ANGELES CLUB IS BEST PITCHER WITH NINE STRAIGHT WINS

SAM HALE, JOE KELLY MARKING HARD FIGHT FOR P. C. L. SWAT CROWN

Don Brown, "Frenchy" La Fayette the Only Oaks Hitting Better Than .280.

By EDDIE MURPHY.
The San Francisco Seals had a merry time in the last couple of games by hammering the shoots of the Oakland pitchers, but after checking up the hitting averages of the two clubs for the entire series, neither the Oaks or Seals did much good for themselves in bettering their standings. The Oaks cannot boast of one regular who is batting .290, while among the Seals it will be noticed that several of the top-notch hitters fell off in their stick work. Joe Kelly, the left fielder, was the gentleman of the transbay outfit who caused most of the woe to the locals. Joe had a great week of it and boosted his average up to .383, leaving him only seventeen points behind Jimmy O'Connell, who is at an even .400. Bert Ellison, the Seal first sacker, slumped sixteen points, but he is still the leading hitter in the league with an average of .402, being just two points ahead of his teammate O'Connell.

Joe Kelly and "Doc" Walsh are the only Seals who did not have a great week for their batting averages. While facing the Oakland pitchers, Kelly nicked the Oakland pitchers for sixteen hits in the eight-game series. If Joe can keep up the good work for another week he will likely pass his teammates, O'Connell and Ellison, who have been slipping down gradually until they are now within one slide of being out of the four hundred society.

Seals Have Ten Players Hitting Above .300 Mark.

Sammy Hale, the Portland Beaver, is the gentleman whom Bert Ellison and O'Connell must look out for more than their teammate Kelly. Hale has been going along in big league fashion as a slicker, and he also grabbed sixteen hits for himself last week, while the week before he grabbed sixteen hits in a nine-game series. He failed to hit in but two ball games out of the last seventeen. Hale's average to date is .388. Frank Braxil, another of the Beaver fold, is whaling the apple and right up with the leader. He is at the .374 mark. King, who is at the .374 mark, is the other Beavers batting in the select class. The San Francisco club has ten players batting better than .300 and all of them have played in at least half the ball games. Salt Lake is boasting of at least seven in the same class, with Duffy Lowe being the best with an average of .374. The Angels have five with averages above .300, with Griggs taking top honors with .364. The Vernon Tigers are almost as bad off as the Oaks in claiming heavy hitters as they have but two over

Technical Net Players Trim Fremont Hi 4-1

University and Oakland to Meet in Big Matches Tomorrow Afternoon.

Technical clinched third place and possibly second place, for itself yesterday in the third round of the annual tournament of the Oakland High Schools Tennis league by winning from Fremont four out of five matches played. The day's games were productive of both good and indifferent tennis. Arthur Victor, the first ranking man on the Technical team of racket wielders, was probably the individual star of the day. He won his singles match against Stanley Almquist of Fremont by the score of 6-4 and 4-2 and with his doubles partner, Mike Lane, the two conquered Fremont's first doubles pair, Stanley Almquist and Lloyd Isaacs, in three sets by the score of 6-0, 1-6, 5-2.

Both sides displayed fine tennis in this latter match with good strokes on both sides. Victor especially distinguished himself by his fast work on the court and speedy, well-placed drives.

Steady tennis won the second singles set for Mike Lane (T.) against Lloyd Isaacs (F.) by the score of 6-4, 6-2. Hugh Hockett of the Technical team, who had been out of the action and took two straight sets from Everett Hall (T.) with a score of 6-3, 6-4. The fifth match, between Eddie Ogden and Merrill Akers (T.) and Ben Tucker and partner of Fremont threatened to drag on indefinitely as the score in the third game of the match, with each of the first two gone to one side, seemed to be 8-8. Then endurance told and the strokes of Akers captured the two requisite games for Technical to win the match with a score of 6-3, 2-6, 10-8.

The tennis league standing to date is as follows:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
1 Oakland	10	0	1.000
2 University	6	5	.550
3 Technical	5	5	.500
4 Fremont	1	9	.100

Baseball Idol, Christy Mathewson

De Palma Will Drive Car in Shriner Race

Best Drivers in Country to Compete at San Carlos on June 14.

Driving a new Deussenberg job which he declared to be the fastest thing he has ever piloted around an American speedway, Ralph De Palma, regarded as the craftiest race driver in the country, will be one of the featured attractions of the Shriner's Golden Jubilee race meet on the San Carlos Speedway, Wednesday, June 14.

De Palma's French Ballot racer did not seem to be in a hurry to get going, but after a few laps, following Ralph to show only flashes of his wonderful ability, the famous Italian speed king has not been up among the top at the finish of many recent races. His fourth place at Indianapolis in the Duesenberg indicates that he is a driver who has the performance, when he is in the groove, to have won him many thousands of admirers.

The fact that he is driving one of the greatest cars that the Duesenberg brothers ever turned out will make him a contender right from the drop of Eddie Rickenbacker's checked flag after Ford drivers have been behind Barney Oldfield, the pace maker.

WILCOX IS ENTERED.
"Howdy" Wilcox, himself a Shriner, being a member of Murat Temple, in fact, however, he stood the gauntlet in great shape at Sacramento, during stifling heat, which makes his admirers hopeful that the heat will not bother him in the east this year, as it did last year.

Roscoe Carles, in his new Duesenberg job, Art Klein, driving one of the famous Chevrolet new type Frontenacs, has a real car for a first time in two years. Peter De Paolo, nephew of De Palma, is driving Eddie Hearne's Duesenberg. Duesenberg and Klein, who will pilot his Durant Special, which is faster now than when Tommy Milton won the AAA championship with it last year.

Canadian national champion with a Grand Prix Duesenberg, Wilbur D'Alene in the Mexican Anhuac, Joe Thomas with his rebuilt Duesenberg, to say nothing of such well known eastern drivers as Dalen, Nordenshueld and Malcher, will make a great race.

Wilcox in his fast Peugeot will, in addition to doing his best to make the race victor a Shriner, will thrill the crowds in an exhibition with a fast aeroplane. The stunt will take place just in the vicinity of the 150 miles of auto racing.

Earl P. Cooper starts the day off as early as 10 o'clock in the morning with his 100 miles against the clock. The new course will be 640 yards long and will include several practice tees and putting greens.

In addition to these star attractions on the track will be the Ford dealers twenty-five mile race, the dealers' race, and a polo match. The drivers and their camels will feast on a bull's head, the best of the big barbecue prepared under the direction of Don Jose Greer, the famous barbeque chef, will feed upwards of 10,000 hungry Shriners and their friends.

Being conducted under the official American Automobile Association sanction and under the auspices of the Shrine convention, June 14 event will make history for auto racing in the west, being the biggest single day's program ever crowded onto any speedway in the country.

Johnston to Visit East to Regain Title

Former Singles Champion to Play in the Grass Court Championship.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—(United Press)—William Johnston, former national singles tennis champion, will leave San Francisco for the East in July to engage in the nation's biggest grass court matches. Johnston will attempt to regain his national championship in the singles, and will also try to help the United States retain the Davis cup, won last year.

Tennis deposters believe that Johnston has an excellent chance of regaining the title from William T. Tilden, the present holder. Johnston is playing almost flawless tennis, and is in better condition this year than ever before. In the first big matches of the season—the East-West match, and the Pacific Coast tournament, both held at Berkeley, Johnston defeated Tilden twice during the week in the singles. Johnston also defeated Vincent Richards, Tilden's playing mate in the East-West, and rated one of the most brilliant players in the country. Johnston recently won everything in sight at the Central California championships at Sacramento. In this event he did not allow any opponent to win a set, and also won the Kinsley brothers whom he met in the semi-finals, to win but five games out of five sets.

Johnston's trouble in the past has been his inability to stand the pace of a long match. However, he stood the gauntlet in great shape at Sacramento, during stifling heat, which makes his admirers hopeful that the heat will not bother him in the east this year, as it did last year.

Ponder Leads Coast League Pitching List

Angel Flinger Has Won Nine Straight; Arlett Is the Best of Oaks.

Ponder, of the Angels, continues to battle opposing teams and hung up his ninth straight win of the season during the past week against the Vernon Tigers. His work in the box has been largely responsible for keeping the Angels so well up in the race. Mitchell, of San Francisco, is the next regular on the list with eight wins and one defeat.

Buz Arlett continues to head the list of the Oakland hurlers with eleven wins and four defeats. Jones is the next of the local box artists.

UNIQUE STUNT IN WIRELESS IS LATEST WONDERAccompaniment Sent by Radio; Song Rendered by Dorris Walker.

Another unique and interesting "stunt" was added to the long list of the radio yesterday at the meeting of the Oakland Electrical Club when Dorris Walker, popular member of a local musical comedy company, entertained the guests with a song, the accompaniment of which was played in a San Francisco broadcasting station. According to veteran radio men present this is the first time in history of the radio that a feat of this kind has been accomplished.

A. C. Bruner addressed the club from the San Francisco broadcasting station on the "Wonders of Radio."

Arthur H. Halloran, editor of "Radio," a guest at the meeting, addressed the club on the advancement of radio and the place which he contended it is fast attaining and will hold, both in the commercial field and as an entertainment feature. Mr. Loewenthal, former associate of Edison and a pioneer in the wireless and radio development of the world, introduced Halloran.

Electrical men are observing "Bridal Week" this week, and the various phases were described by Walter F. Pierce, who announced that the week would be brought to a close on Saturday evening when a bride couple from Santa Rosa will be carried in a local broadcasting station. Relatives and friends of the couple will listen in at the ceremony which will be broadcasted.

Hartman Appeals
For Better Music

Ferris Hartman, a radio opera star, told members of the Oakland Electrical Club that the Hartman-Steindorff opera company hopes to accomplish by their season which has opened at the Municipal auditorium, at the organization's luncheon at the Hotel Oakland yesterday. Hartman made an appeal for the people of Oakland to get behind the productions. "In the interests of better music," he said.

Entertainment at yesterday's luncheon was provided by Group No. 4 of the club. One of the features of the program was a "human pipe organ," members taking the parts of various notes. Community singing concluded the affair.

Shoots at Object in Hand, Kills Playmate

MIAMI, Fla., June 6.—William Lester, 15, today faced a charge of manslaughter for killing Philip Hastings Jr., his 13-year-old playmate. Hastings' death resulted, according to evidence brought out at the coroner's inquest, from wounds received when Lester attempted to shoot an object out of the victim's hand as the latter rode away on a bicycle.

Italy—A low coil with only one "layer" of wire.

IS FEATURE IN RADIO CONCERTTroupe of Nationally-Famed Players Obtained for KZM Listeners-in.

When KZM, The TRIBUNE'S broadcasting station, goes on the air tonight, radio fans will have an opportunity to hear a saxophone troupe of nation-wide reputation, which has been brought here directly from the New York Winter Garden. There will also be several other numbers on the program, which will extend until 8:15 o'clock.

The original Brown Brothers' Saxophone Six will be the main feature on tonight's radio concert program which will be broadcast by The TRIBUNE. The Brown brothers have played on prominent vaudeville circuits throughout the country and are known to almost every theater-goer. They have also made hundreds of phonograph records. They are appearing this week at the Franklin theater.

The troupe was brought here to assist in providing entertainment at the Tribune's national convention which will be held next week in San Francisco. The Franklin theater management secured them for the preceding week and loaned them to The TRIBUNE for tonight's radio concert. The Six Brown Brothers have prepared a special program, which they have carefully rehearsed in order that tonight's music may go out from KZM to thousands of grateful radio fans.

The Brown brothers will play the following selections: "Just a Little Love Song," "Song of India," "I'm a Sentimental Dreamer," "Bull Frog Blues," "Three O'Clock in the Morning," "The Rosary" and "Some Sunny Day."

Miss Hazel Carlson Wood, vocal soloist, who sang for The TRIBUNE last Tuesday night, has been engaged again for tonight. This announcement will be received with enthusiasm by the "listeners-in" on Tuesday's concert. Miss Wood's music was greatly appreciated and she will sing again in response to a number of special requests for a return engagement.

Miss Wood will sing "Dear Little Boy of Mine" and "Cuddle Near, Mammy Dear," her accompanist being Charles Offenbert, composer of the last number.

INVITATION SENT POLICE CHIEFS

BERKELEY, June 6.—A radio message to all the chiefs of police throughout the world was started yesterday from Berkeley on the first lap of its journey around the globe. The message was relayed east, and from New York City, it was sent to Scotland, and from there to the other European countries. The message at the same time started on its way north and south, and has spread throughout almost every state in the Union. It is being relayed entirely by amateurs.

The message was despatched yesterday from the home of A. H. Habcock, superintendent of the Southern Pacific electric lines at 227 Piedmont avenue, who himself has an amateur transmitting station. The message was framed by Chief of Police August Vollmer, president of the International Association of Chiefs of Police. He urges every chief of police throughout the world to attend the annual convention of the association to be held in San Francisco.

Magnetic Detector—Consists of a soft-iron wire band, slowly rotating through a small transformer placed beneath two permanent magnets having their like poles adjacent. Primary windings of transformer are connected to earth and aerial while the telephones are connected across the secondary. Iron band passing beneath the magnets is in field of the constantly changing magnetic lines of force. As an oscillation this strain breaks down, causing a sudden change in the magnetization of the iron band, which takes place within the secondary winding and causes an induced current to flow through it and thus operate the telephones.

Magnetic Key—A magnetic relay used in connection with the manipulating key where alternating current is used, to prevent sparking and burning away of the platinum contacts. This effect is produced by short circuiting the key at every maximum value of the alternating current. Thus, no matter at what period of a cycle the key is released there will be practically only a zero potential between the points.

LESSON NO. 73.

Licensing of Radio Stations.
(Copyright by Edward M. Davis)
(All rights reserved by United Feature Syndicate. Reproduction prohibited.)

The Department of Commerce issues licenses authorizing the operation of radio stations of various types upon application and inspection by the local radio inspector of the particular radio district in which the station is located.

Stations conducting a receiving service only do not require licenses but the operators are governed by the same laws regarding the secrecy of messages as the operators of transmitting stations where the operators are required to take an oath to keep secret the contents of all messages.

Transmitting stations are classified according to the nature of the service performed namely: General public service, limited commercial, experimental, school and college stations, special amateur, general amateur and restricted amateur stations.

General public stations are those which conduct a paid commercial business such as the ship and shore stations. Limited commercial stations conduct special services such as communication between fixed points, trans-oceanic service or broadcasting. Experimental stations are conducted by engineers for the purpose of developing special apparatus for radio communication. Special amateur stations are licensed in inland regions for amateur relay work where interference with ship to shore service is not probable. General amateur stations are located more than five nautical miles from any government radio station while the amateur stations within that distance of any government station are restricted in power to one-half kilowatt.

The International Convention has assigned certain groups of call letters to each nation for designating the various radio stations controlled by that nation. All combinations of call letters beginning with "W" and most of those beginning with "K" are assigned for the United States Navy. For example, "KDON" is the American, "SS" America and "NAH" is the call of the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Call letters beginning with "W" or "K" are assigned only to commercial stations while the call letters of the experimental, school and amateur stations are prefixed by the numeral indicating to radio district in which the amateur or experimental station is located.

Experimental stations have call letters made up of the number of the radio district, the letter "X" and one or two other letters. School station call letters substitute a "Y" for the "X" and special amateur stations are designated by the letter "Z" which immediately follows the number of the radio district.

The call letters assigned to general and restricted amateur stations are made up of the number of the radio district followed by three letters. There are about 600 combinations of two-letter calls omitting those beginning with "X," "Y" and "Z," necessitating the use of many three-letter calls. The two-letter combinations are greatly in charge of the amateurs due to their simplicity.

The license for any radio transmitting station specifies among other things that at all times while in operation the station must be in charge of a duly licensed operator who is directly responsible for the operation of the station in compliance with requirements of the Federal and International radio laws.

Radio May Enable Talking With Mars

That the future of radio is far greater than the imagination can picture was the contention of Jas. H. MacLafferty in his weekly talk from the Rockridge radio broadcasting station last night. "Radio is the toy of the masses, and its reception has been greater than any other invention," said MacLafferty. "Even those who now use it do not sense its great possibilities. Who can say that it shall not communicate with Mars, providing there are inhabitants there?"

Tugs—Metal projections for simplifying the electrical connection of two articles. A small tube in end of which wire can be soldered, the other end being flattened out and having a hole drilled to receive any required terminal.

BUREAU FOUND THROUGH RADIO'S
NEW POPULARITYEntire Building Devoted to Wireless Testing and Experimenting.By JOHN GOLDSTROM, (International News Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The radio boom has begun to acquaint the public with a government institution that stands on a wooded hill in the Chevy Chase district and overlooks the universe.

In the laboratories of the Bureau of Standards atoms and planets are juggled with equal facility. The durability of shoe leather is tested in one room while an instrument to record the greatest heights of the airplanes is being perfected in another.

What happens to sewer pipe exposed to alkaline conditions is ascertained in one of the bureau's six buildings while an astronomical instrument is being tested in another. Kitchen ware is being standardized in one laboratory while battleship machinery is improved in another.

BUREAU IS UNIT.
The Bureau of Standards is a unit of the Department of Commerce, but it functions for every practical activity of the government, and its expert counsel is sought by scientists and engineers the world over.

Dr. S. W. Stratton, the director, heads a corps of scientific experts the scope and magnitude of whose work has never been equaled by any body of its type in the world. Like most of the useful workers for the government they are overworked and underpaid. Some of them join the research departments of the large industrial corporations, which are glad to triple and quadruple their salaries but most of them remain in the government service at bookkeeper's wages.

SUPREMACY OF SCIENCE.
The bureau is rapidly becoming the supreme authority of applied science the world over. When the municipal authorities of Johannesburg, South Africa, found acoustic faults in their new auditorium they did not send to London about it, but wrote to the American Bureau of Standards, describing the auditorium in detail. From the description the acoustic experts worked out the solution on paper and sent it to Johannesburg, where the fault was corrected.

Requests for expert advice and information come to the bureau almost daily from all countries, and Washington seems rapidly to be supplanting Berlin as the scientific capital of the world.

ARBITER FOR RADIO.
The position of the bureau as arbiter in radio affairs was exemplified when Secretary of Commerce Hoover appointed its director, Dr. Stratton, chairman of the radio conference to formulate a governing code.

An entire building of the bureau is devoted to radio testing and experimentation. Recently the public demand for printed information on home-made radio sets has been so great that a large part of the radio division's activities have been directed toward supplying this information, which can be procured by application to the bureau or to the government printing office.

The bureau issues once a month

a technical news bulletin supplying information as to advances and improvements in applied science originating within the bureau.

PHONE GIRL BEAT REVOLT.
CAPETOWN.—The success of South African troops in quelling the Rand revolt was largely due to the intrepid telephone girls, who stuck to their posts, defying attacks and threats by the rebels.

WHY WOMEN SMOKE.
ROME.—Signor Alberti, a famous news specialist, says that women are becoming more nervous all the time; that their excessive smoking is due to this fact.

Bed bugs lay from 6 to 50 eggs per batch, hatching in a week.

A flashlight operated by a magnet has been perfected.

State-Wide Electrical Appliance WeekJUNE—the month of brides and wedding gifts—will be marked this year by a special effort on the part of electrical people to bring about a new appreciation of the value of electrical appliances.

From June 5th to the 10th, electrical dealers, manufacturers, and power companies all over the state will try new ways of showing you how "electrical servants" can lighten the work in your home.

Drop in at the nearest place where "electrical servants" are on display and ask for a demonstration of their time- and labor-saving qualities.

Think what fine gifts these faithful "servants" will make for brides, relatives and friends. Such evidence of your regard and thoughtfulness would be appreciated throughout the years of the appliance's usefulness.
